TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 67TH LEGISLATURE, AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY:

An informed citizenry is indispensable to the necessary support of the judicial branch of government and its continued improvement to enable it to meet its responsibilities in present-day society.

The information included in this report contains the statistics on the activities of the courts of the state, and is intended to inform the general public, as well as members of the legislative and executive branches of government, of the extent of the duties, responsibilities, and accomplishments of the judicial branch of government during the calendar year of 1981.

The cooperation of the judges and clerks at all levels of the Judiciary has made possible the presentation of this report on the activity of the courts of the State of Texas. The members of the Texas Judicial Council and the staff of the Office of Court Administration express their appreciation to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted the monthly reports and other requested information on the operations of the Texas Judicary which made this report possible.

Respectfully submitted,

Raymond Judice

TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 67TH LEGISLATURE, AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY:

I am pleased to transmit to you the 53rd Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council, as required by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S. The report covers the activities and operations of the more than 2,600 courts in the State of Texas for the calendar year 1981.

One of the most significant changes to the Texas Judicial System occurred during the period covered by the report. On September 1, 1981, the previous Courts of Civil Appeals were converted into Courts of Appeals having intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases, thus providing for the first time an intermediate appeal in criminal cases.

Under the provisions of Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., which provides that the Council shall make a ". . . continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedures and practices of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods for its improvement. . .," the members of the Council and the staff of the state Office of Court Administration, working with the various task forces appointed by Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill and the appropriate legislative committees, developed the necessary legislation to implement this constitutional change in the court structure of the state. This report will reflect the new jurisdiction of the Courts of Appeals, which became effective on September 1, 1981.

It is my sincere hope that the information contained in this report will be helpful in channeling the efforts of the state to meet the needs of society by providing for a more just, effective and efficient system of justice for all of our citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

Ben Z. Grant

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS

DESCRIPTIVE OUTLINE

January 1, 1982

The present appellate court structure of Texas consists of a Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court in civil matters; a Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court in criminal matters; and fourteen courts of appeals, which exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal matters.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, which in some metropolitan areas have been established as courts having primarily civil, criminal, family law, or juvenile jurisdiction. The geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is determined by the specific statute creating that court, and does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each district court has one judge.

In addition to the state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court presided over by a county judge in each county. To relieve the docket congestion of the single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established probate courts and county courts at law in certain counties, which have concurrent jurisdiction with the constitutionally established county courts.

The Texas Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Since 1953, these justice courts also serve as small claims courts.

The Legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city. These courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts, limited, however to the geographic confines of the municipality.

SUPREME COURT--1

1. JURISDICTION: The Supreme Court of Texas has state-wide final appellate jurisdiction in civil and juvenile cases, and original jurisdiction to issue writs. It has general responsibility for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial System, and it is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the judicial system, and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the state. The Court also has final authority over the involuntary retirement or removal of all judges in the state.
2. SEAT: Austin
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One Chief Justice and eight justices
   b. Selection: Partisan, state-wide election. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35; a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together for at least 10 years.
   d. Salaries:

      Chief Justice:
      eff. 9-1-81 $66,200
      eff. 9-1-82 $71,900
      Justices:
      eff. 9-1-81 $65,700
      eff. 9-1-82 $71,400

   e. Term: Six-year, overlapping terms.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS--1

1. JURISDICTION: The Court of Criminal Appeals has state-wide final appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and the power to issue writs.
2. SEAT: Austin
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One Presiding Judge and eight other judges.
   b. Selection:
      (1) Presiding Judge and judges are elected in partisan state-wide elections. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of the Senate.
      (2) The Court has authority to appoint commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35; a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together for at least 10 years.
   d. Salaries:

      Presiding Judge:
      eff. 9-1-81 $66,200
      eff. 9-1-82 $71,900

Judges:
eff. 9-1-81 $65,700
eff. 9-1-82 $71,400

e. Term: Six year, overlapping terms.

COURTS OF APPEALS--14

1. JURISDICTION: These courts have intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases from trial courts in each respective geographical district of the state, which are designated as "Supreme Judicial Districts." They have limited original writ jurisdiction.
2. SEATS: 1st District, Houston
2nd District, Fort Worth
3rd District, Austin
4th District, San Antonio
5th District, Dallas
6th District, Texarkana
7th District, Amarillo
8th District, El Paso
9th District, Beaumont
10th District, Waco
11th District, Eastland
12th District, Tyler
13th District, Corpus Christi
14th District, Houston
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: Varies from one Chief Justice and two associate justices to one Chief Justice and 11 associate justices, for a total of 75 justices state-wide.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections within each supreme judicial district. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; age 35; a practicing lawyer, or lawyer and judge of a court of record together for at least 10 years.
   d. Salaries paid by the State:
      Chief Justices:
      eff. 9-1-81 $55,800
      eff. 9-1-82 $60,600
      Associate Justices:
      eff. 9-1-81 $55,300
      eff. 9-1-82 $60,100

      Supplements may be paid by the counties in the districts, not to exceed $15,000 per year and total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by Supreme Court justices ($500 in the case of chief justices).
   e. Term: Six years.

DISTRICT COURTS--341

1. JURISDICTION: There are 341 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. Six additional courts have been created with future effective dates. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

   District courts are trial courts of general subject matter jurisdiction. They have original jurisdiction of all felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, all civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $500, and all other cases where jurisdiction of the subject matter of the case is not vested in some other court. County courts at law and "constitutional" county courts also exercise limited subject matter jurisdiction over civil suits and thus to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Several statutes stipulate various maximum amounts in controversy over which the various county level courts may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county courts begins with suits involving $500 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county level court. Above such maximum jurisdictional amount of the county level court, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

   The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

   Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal or family law cases. In some cases, the courts that have criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts.

A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the courts of appeals, except those cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

2. SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.
   d. Salaries paid by the State:

      eff. 9-1-81 $46,800

      eff. 9-1-82 $50,900

      Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties, ranging to $25,000 per year. Total salary must be $1,000 less than received by associate justices of the court of appeals of the supreme judicial district.
   e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS--254

1. JURISDICTION: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the state, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has concurrent legal authority with justice of the peace courts in civil cases when the contested amount is $200-$500, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually has general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed.

   Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists. Decisions from the municipal and justice courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo).

   Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals.

   a. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.
2. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

   Note: The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

COUNTY COURTS AT LAW--122

1. JURISDICTION: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 122 statutory county courts at law in 49 counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts are intended to exercise in practice subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); but the names do not always disclose their complete functions. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court is higher than constitutional county courts.

a. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide. Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following county courts at law:

2. SEATS: County seat of county jurisdiction.
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filed by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute, some include two to five years experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS--962

1. JURISDICTION: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least 4, and not more than 8 justice precincts, in each of which shall be elected one justice of the peace, provided that, if the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, one additional justice of the peace shall be elected from such precinct.

   Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when punishment is by fine only not to exceed $200. They have jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $500. A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries when the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills when the amount does not exceed $150.
2. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: No statutory provision.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS--762

1. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the state. Presently, municipal courts are operating in over 700 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances (predominately traffic offenses). The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the state.

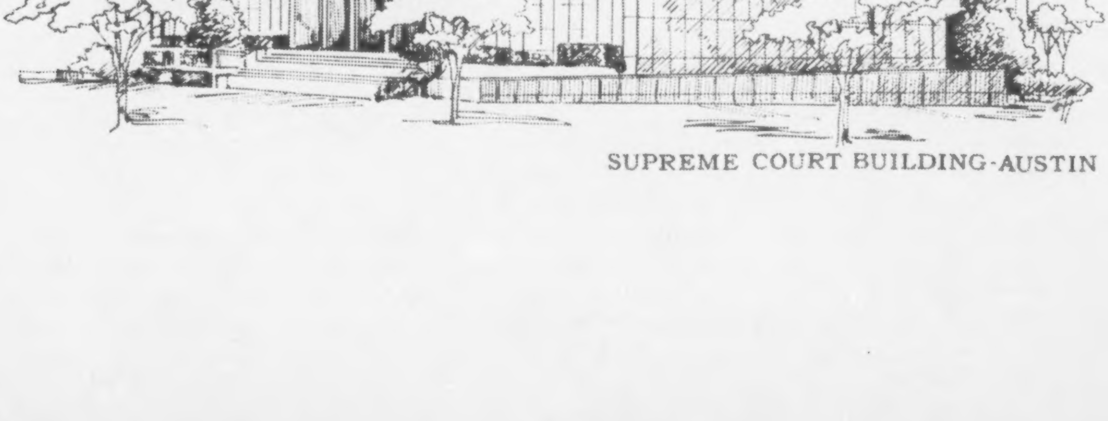
Trial in all but seven municipal courts are not of record, with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law or the district court, upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls are courts of record with appeals on the record perfected in the municipal court.

2. SEATS: Determined by the city or town.
3. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city or town as provided by city charter or ordinance.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city or town.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city or town. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Varies from one year to an indefinite term, often at the will of the governing body of the city or town.



SUPREME COURT BUILDING-AUSTIN

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

January 1, 1982

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The Supreme Court is the highest state appellate court for civil matters and the Court of Criminal Appeals makes the final determination in criminal matters. The state has fourteen intermediate courts of appeals that, since September 1, 1981, exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases. Prior to this date, those courts had jurisdiction only in civil appellate cases.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 342. (Ten of these courts are designed "Criminal District Courts," but, as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited to criminal cases on the district level.)

The geographical jurisdiction of each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and that jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each court has one judge. The State pays the base salary of each judge and some expenses.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge, who also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court in each county, the Legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 49 counties. As of January 1, 1982, there are nine probate courts and 113 county courts at law. Three additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but were not in operation during 1981.

The Texas Constitution also provides for not less than four nor more than eight justice of the peace courts in each county. Today there are 962 justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these courts have also served as small claims courts.

The Legislature has created, by statute, municipal courts in each incorporated city in the state. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction over state law violations with the justice of the peace courts, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality. They do not have civil jurisdiction.

Trials in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with seven exceptions) are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties as noted later, where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual court. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters, such as the Family Code, which requires a lawyer-judge to hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Austin Court of Appeals. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of the state. Certain counties supplement this base salary for district and intermediate appellate judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the basic salary of the judge. The cities finance the municipal courts.

H.B. 656 of the 67th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $37,635,194 in general revenue funds for the operations of the judiciary in fiscal year 1982. This represents less than one percent of the $5,098,451,767 total general revenue funds appropriated.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: 1) the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; 2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and 3) the 14 courts of appeals, which are the intermediate appellate courts for both civil and criminal appeals from the trial level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the trial courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented at the trial court level.

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a Chief Justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two commissions of appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

> The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of the courts of appeals is usually final. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the judicial system and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the state. The Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of all judges in the state.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas Judicial System. The duties include: 1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas Judicial System (Article 1731a); 2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas Judicial System (Article 2328b); 3) equalizing the dockets between the 14 courts of appeals (Article 1738); 4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining or removing judges from office (Article V, Section 1-a, Tex. Const.); 5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the state (Articles 304, 306, 320a-1); 6) promulgating disciplinary rules for the Texas Prosecutors Council (Article 332d); and 7) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Texas Court Reporters Committee and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Committee (Article 2324b).

The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: 1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (Article 200a); 2) assign judges between administrative judicial districts (Article 200a); and, 3) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (Article 5429h).

The Supreme Court is composed of one Chief Justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a state-wide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this Court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this state, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

The Court of Criminal Appeals

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

The constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides: "The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law." The jurisdiction of this Court extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate courts of appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. In addition, the Legislature has authorized the Court to promulgate "rules of post trial and appellate procedure" in criminal cases.

The Court, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a Presiding Judge and eight other judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

Courts of Appeals

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate courts of civil appeals located at various places throughout the state. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the state into 14 "Supreme Judicial Districts" and has established a court of appeals in each district. These courts are located in the following cities: Houston (two courts), Dallas, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, El Paso, Beaumont, Texarkana, Amarillo, Tyler, Eastland, Waco, Austin, and Fort Worth.

Each court has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in the same Supreme Judicial District. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The courts of appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of these courts is usually final.

Each of the courts of appeals has at least three judges--a chief justice and two associate justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. Presently, the Dallas Court of Appeals has twelve judges, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine judges, the court located in San Antonio has seven, the courts located in Corpus Christi and Fort Worth each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. The Legislature has also provided that the Third Court of Appeals, in Austin, will increase to a total of six justices on September 1, 1982, and the Dallas Court will increase to 13 on January 1, 1983. Thus, when those judges are added, there will be a total of 79 judges assigned to the 14 intermediate courts of appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for six-year terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. In most cases, the parties have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve citizens of the locale. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts at law, and the probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the state, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the state.

District-Level Courts

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to state-wide election) and that court proceedings be conducted at the county seat of each county.

The district courts are the general trial courts for the state, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $500 or more. This jurisdiction is concurrent with the "constitutional" county court in cases involving less than $1,000. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts usually have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $500 but is less than $5,000.

The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by statute or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the court of appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of January 1, 1983, the Legislature will have established 347 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

The judges of these courts are elected by the voters of the judicial district. The qualifications for office include being a citizen of the United States and of Texas, a resident of the judicial district for at least two years, and a practicing lawyer or judge for at least four years.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the jurisdiction of a constitutional district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W.2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). See also, Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933), and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County expressly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the criminal district court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently, the state statutes purport to limit the jurisdiction of 17 district courts to civil matters only:

14th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
17th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)
44th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
48th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199 (153)
58th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)
60th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)
67th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)
68th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
95th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
96th (Tarrant) - art. 199(17), 199(153)
101st (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
116th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
134th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11
136th (Jefferson) - arts. 199(58), 199(136)
153rd (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)
156th (Aransas, Bee, Live Oak, McMullen, San Patricio) - art. 199(156)

The constitutional power to establish "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) apparently does authorize the Legislature to establish special district courts with criminal jurisdiction only. Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941). A statute limiting the jurisdiction of a district court to criminal matters was recognized by a court of civil appeals. Cook v. Nelius, 498 S.W.3d 455 (Tex. Civ. App. - Houston [1st District] 1973, no writ). In a similar situation, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not comment on the question. Pittman v. State, 434 S.W.2d 352 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

Several district courts have been created with their jurisdiction so limited, but at this time only three courts are limited to exclusively criminal district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant
  County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)
Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant
  County (art. 1926-43)
Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant
  County (art. 1926-44)

Four others are limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Dallas County
  (arts. 1926-11, 1926-22)
Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas
  County (arts. 1926-13, 1926-22)
Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas
  County (arts. 1926-14, 1926-16, 1926-22)
Criminal District Court of Jefferson County
  (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)

As will be noted later, other "Criminal District Courts" cannot be categorized as having only district-level criminal jurisdiction because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention of the Legislature that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction. Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases and the statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts:

144th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
175th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
187th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are directed by statute to give preference to civil cases and only civil cases are to be filed in those courts:

37th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
45th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
57th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
73rd (Bexar) - art. 199(37) 5
131st (Bexar) - art. 199(37)
150th (Bexar) - arts. 199(37), 199(150)
166th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Thirty-seven courts are thus instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

105th (Nueces) - art. 199(105)
107th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)
138th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(138)
147th (Travis) - art. 199(147)
182nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.010
183rd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.011
184th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.012
185th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.013
194th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.021
195th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.022
197th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199a, sec. 3.024
202nd (Bowie) - art. 199a, sec. 3.033(b)
203rd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.030
204th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.031
205th (Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth) - art. 199a, sec. 3.032
207th (Caldwell, Comal, Hays) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)
208th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.036
209th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.037 6
214th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.042
Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-45)
226th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.053
227th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.054
228th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.055
230th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.056
232nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.058
248th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.073
252nd (Jefferson) - art. 199a, sec. 3.078
262nd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.088
263rd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.089
265th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.091
282nd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.108
283rd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.109
289th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.115
290th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.116
291st (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.117
292nd (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.118
297th (Tarrant) - art. 199a, sec. 3.123

Ten courts are similarly instructed to give preference to civil cases:

103rd (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)
215th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.043
224th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.051
225th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.052
285th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.111
288th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.114
295th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.121 7
298th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.124
333rd (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.128 (eff. 1-1-83)
334th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.129 (eff. 1-1-83)

Ten district courts are to give preference to family law matters:

231st (Tarrant) - art. 199a, sec. 3.057
233rd (Tarrant) - art. 19a, sec. 3.059
245th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.070
246th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.071
247th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.072
254th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.080 8
255th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.081
256th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.082
257th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.083
279th (Jefferson) - art. 199a, sec. 3.105

One court is directed by statute to give first preference to family law cases and second preference to criminal cases:

148th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.001 9

The 65th Legislature (1977) converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these 31 courts are to have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters:

300th (Brazoria) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.01
301st (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.02
302nd (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.03
303rd (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.04
304th (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.05
305th (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.06 10
306th (Galveston) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.07
307th (Gregg) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.08
308th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.09
309th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.10
310th (Harris) - art. 1926a, Sec. 2.11
311th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.12

312th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.13
313th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.14
314th (Harris) - art. 1926a. sec. 2.15
315th (Harris) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.16
316th (Hutchinson) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.17
317th (Jefferson) - art. 1926a. sec. 2.18
318th (Midland) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.19
319th (Nueces) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.20
320th (Potter) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.21
321st (Smith) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.22 10
322nd (Tarrant) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.23
323rd (Tarrant) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.24
324th (Tarrant) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.25
325th (Tarrant) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.26
326th (Taylor) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.27
327th (El Paso) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.28
328th (Fort Bend) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.29
329th (Wharton) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.30
330th (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.31

The other statutory provision observed above -- that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court--is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. Lord v. Clayton, 663 Tex. 62, S.W.2d 718 (1961). The statutes provide that in fourteen courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
55th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
61st (Harris) - art. 199(11)
80th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
113th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
125th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
127th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
129th (Harris) - art. 199(11) 11
133rd (Harris) - art. 199(11)
151st (Harris) - art. 199(11)
152nd (Harris) - art. 199(11)
157th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
164th (Harris) - art. 199(11)
165th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

In six courts, only criminal cases are to be filed:

174th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(174)
176th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(176)
177th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(177) 12
178th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(178)
179th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(179)
180th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(180)

Finally, for one court, the Legislature has specified that criminal and tax cases only shall be filed:

49th (Webb) - art. 199(111) 13

As noted above, some 113 statutory county courts at law and 9 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised by the county court at law concurrently with the district court. Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified family law matters:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County
(art. 1970-340)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County
(art. 1970-340.1) 14
County Court at Law of Orange County
(art. 1970-349A)
County Court at Law of Webb County
(art. 1970-360)

Five county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Randall County
(art. 1970-371)
County Court at Law of Reeves County
(art. 1970-373)
County Court at Law of Walker County
(art. 1970-367) 15
County Court at Law of Val Verde County
(art. 1970-373)
County Court at Law of Wichita County
(art. 1970-166d)

Nine county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law of Anderson County
(art. 1970-377) eff. 1-1-84, or earlier as determined by county commissioners
County Court at Law of Hays County 16
(art. 1970-358)
County Court at Law of Medina County
(art. 1970-376)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363a)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (art. 1970-324)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.1) 16
County Court at Law No. 4 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.2)
County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)

Two county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified non-jury family law matters and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-33) 17
County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62.2)

Two county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $50,000:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357) 18
County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

Five county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)
County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)
County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b) 19
Probate and County Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342)
County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369)

Thirteen county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County (art. 1970-305c)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Collin County (art. 1970-362)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County (art. 1970-362a)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Denton County (art. 1970-352a)
County Court at Law of Ector County (art. 1970-346)
County Court at Law of Gregg County (art. 1970-375)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341b)
County Court at Law of Hunt County (art. 1970-354) 20
County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County (art. 1970-356a) eff. 1-1-84 or earlier as determined by the county commissioners

Finally, the statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61) 21

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district court level jurisdiction and county court level jurisdiction. In ten counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306
Cass (5th District Court) - Acts 1879, ch. 25, p. 21; Acts 1971, ch. 273, p. 1198 22
Comal (22nd District Court) - Acts 1883, ch. 35, p. 24

Jones (259th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b)
Mason (33rd District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 73, p. 54
Robertson (20th District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 96, p. 256
Shackelford (259th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.085(b) 22
Stephens (90th District Court) - art. 1970-321
Webb (49th, 111th District Courts) - Acts 1893, ch. 9, p. 5

All civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except for probate matters, and the jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases has been transferred to the district court in five counties:

Baylor (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794. p. 3039
Cottle (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794, p. 3039
Eastland (91st District Court) - art. 1970-141a 23
Knox (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794, p. 3039
King (50th District Court) - Acts 1981, ch. 794, p. 3039

In another county, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have been granted concurrent jurisdiction to receive guilty pleas in misdemeanor cases:

Marion (115th, 276th District Courts) - Act 1887, ch. 36, p. 38; arts. 1970-322a; art. 199a, sec. 3.102 24

In another county, all civil cases, except those involving probate matters, and all criminal cases appealed from the justice and municipal courts have been transferred to the district court, and the county and district courts have concurrent jurisdiction in cases in which the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art. 1970-314a 25

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except in probate matters, has been transferred to the district court in six counties:

Glasscock (118th District Court) - art. 1970-320 and Acts 1957, ch. 196, p. 399
Mills (35th District Court) - Acts 1887, ch. 97, p. 109; Acts 1907, ch. 101, p. 199
Navarro (13th District Court) - art. 1970-326 26
Sabine (1st, 273rd District Courts) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S. ch. 7, p. 90
San Augustine (1st, 273rd District Courts) - Acts 1959, 2nd C.S., ch. 7, p. 90
Wichita (89th District Court) - art. 1970-166b

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the Legislature in several instances has given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters. Seven district courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

207th (Caldwell) - art. 199a, sec. 3.035(b)
Criminal District Court of Dallas County - art. 1926-21
Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County - art. 1926-21
Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-41 27
Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-43
Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-44
Criminal District Court No. 4 of Tarrant County - art. 1926-45

In four counties, the district and county courts have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters normally vested solely in the county court:

Hill (66th District Court) - arts. 1970-333; 1970-33a
Johnson (18th District Court) - art. 1970-335
VanZandt (294th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.120 28
Wood (294th District Court) - art. 199a, sec. 3.120

County-Level Courts

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice, who was appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, with a two year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally speaking, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more, and less than $500, general jurisdiction over probate cases, and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors whose punishment for the offense upon conviction is by fine exceeding $200 or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts upon trial de novo.

In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a), which was placed in the district courts and county courts at law. The statute did not transfer any eminent domain cases pending in the "constitutional" county court on the effective date of the act. Therefore, some "constitutional" county courts are continuing to dispose of eminent domain matters filed before 1971.

Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the court of appeals. The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ..." This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Presently, of the 254 county judges in the state, approximately one-fourth are licensed to practice law. Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to]...conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto," the Legislature has created "statutory" county courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court which is authorized for each county. Effective January 1, 1984, the Legislature will have created a total of 122 of these statutory courts in 49 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office.

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in county-wide partisan elections for a four-year term of office, with any vacancies occurring between elections being filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts have uniformly required that the persons serving as judges of these courts must be licensed to practice law in this state. Presently, all judges at this level are licensed attorneys.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of the county courts at law with the district courts extends to a higher dollar amount in controversy than for "constitutional" county courts, but to determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts take many forms. In the creation of three county courts at law, all civil, criminal and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Houston County
(art. 1970-365)
County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County
(art. 1970-361)
County Court at Law of Reeves County
(art. 1970-373)

29

In the creation of 25 county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

County Court at Law of Anderson County (art. 1970-377) eff. 1-1-84 or earlier as determined by county commissioners
County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)
County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301f)
County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)
County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County (art. 1970-305c)
County Court at Law of Collin County (art. 1970-362)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County (art. 1970-362a)
County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)
County Court at Law No. 2 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.2)
County Court at Law No. 4 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.3)
County Court at Law No. 5 of El Paso County (art. 1970-141.4)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County (art. 1970-332a)
County Court at Law of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341a)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341b)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (art. 1970-324)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.1)
County Court at Law No. 4 of Travis County (art. 1970-324a.2)
County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)
County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)
30

One county court at law was created to exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters that had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)
31

The Legislature provided, in the creation of four county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judne in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-310d)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a)
32

For four county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)
County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)
County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343)
33

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Similarly, another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C) 35

For six county courts at law, all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to them:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)
County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)
County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e) 36
County Civil Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110f)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-33)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62.2)

In twenty-seven instances, the "constitutional" county court and the county court(s) at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Bell County (art. 1970-350)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Bell County (art. 1970-350a)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-352)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Denton County (art. 1970-352a)
County Court at Law of Ector County (art. 1970-346)
County Court at Law of Fort Bend County (art. 1970-364) 37
County Court at Law of Gregg County (art. 1970-375)
County Court at Law of Guadalupe County (art. 1970-351)
County Court at Law of Harrison County (art. 1970-223a)
County Court at Law of Hays County (art. 1970-358)
County Court at Law of Houston County (art. 1970-365)
County Court at Law of Hunt County (art. 1970-354)
County Court at Law of McLennan County (art. 1970-298b)
County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d)
County Court at Law of Medina County (art. 1970-376)
County Court at Law of Midland County (art. 1970-370)
County Court at Law of Orange County (arts. 1970-349, 1970-349A)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b)
County Court at Law of Randall County (art. 1970-371) 37
County Court at Law of Smith County (art. 1970-348)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Smith County (art. 1970-348a)
County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369)
County Court at Law of Val Verde County (art. 1970-373)
County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County (art. 1970-356a) eff. 1-1-84 or earlier as may be determined by the county commissioners

In two counties, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347) 38
County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a)

Two county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal, probate and juvenile cases, but not in civil cases up to $500, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363a) 39

In one county, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except civil cases up to $500, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction. The county court at law may exercise probate and mental health jurisdiction only when the county judge is absent or unable to handle proceedings in those matters:

County Court at Law of Wichita County (art. 1970-166d)

40

Six of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-3)
County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-16)
County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.1)
County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.1)
County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art. 1970-31.2)
County Court at Law of Henderson County (art. 1970-366)(inactive)

Two county courts at law were created with the proviso that they and the county court were to have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters, but that no probate cases were to be filed in the county court at law:

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342a)
County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

42

In three counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. The statutes creating seven of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31a)
Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1970-31a, 1970-31b)
Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31c)
Probate Court No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a)
Probate Court No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.2)
Probate Court of Tarrant County (art. 1970-345)
Probate Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-345a)

One probate court has concurrent jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court and is to have "primary" responsibility at all times for all mental illness proceedings:

Probate Court No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110a.3)

Another specialized probate court, however, has concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters, but only probate cases are to be filed in the probate court:

Probate and County Court of Galveston (art. 1970-342)

45

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases. Most of these (22) are limited to criminal cases, concurrent with the "constitutional" county court:

County Criminal Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.10)
County Criminal Court No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.11)
County Criminal Court No. 3 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.12)
County Criminal Court No. 4 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.13)
County Criminal Court No. 5 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.14)
County Criminal Court No. 6 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)
County Criminal Court No. 7 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.15)
County Criminal Court No. 8 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.16)
County Criminal Court No. 9 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.17)
County Criminal Court No. 10 of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.18)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-96)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-31.11)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.1)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 5 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 6 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

46

County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 10 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.4) 46
County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62a)
County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62b)

Four county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and further, have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court of Appeals of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.20)
County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 19870-31.12) 47
County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62c)
County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62d)

Justice of the Peace Courts

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least four, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected a justice of the peace. If the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, an additional justice of the peace is authorized. Approximately 946 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and less than ten percent of the approximately 946 justices of the peace in the state are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200 to $500. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries where the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills where the amount does not exceed $150.

Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1978 provides that the Legislature may grant these courts concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts and county courts at law in matters wherein the amount in controversy does not exceed $1,000. This provision has been implemented only for those justice of the peace courts located in counties with a population of two million or more (Harris County):

Harris County Justice of the Peace Courts (art. 2385a) 48

In 32 counties, the county court by special statute has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in that county:

Armstrong (art. 1970-190)
Atascosa (Acts 1915, ch. 88, p. 141)
Bailey (Acts 1911, ch. 93, p. 171)
Burleson (art. 1970-242)

Stonewall (art. 1970-262)
Terry (Acts 1915, ch. 88, p. 141)
Washington (art. 1970-308)
Yoakum (Acts 1915, ch. 88, p. 141)

In two additional counties, the county court at law has by special statute been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts:

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347)
County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a) 50
County Court at Law No. 2 of Potter County (art. 1970-311b)

The county court in eight counties has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in both civil and criminal matters:

Blanco (art. 1970-337, sec. 4)
Edwards (art. 1970-330a, sec. 4)
Gillespie (art. 1970-312)
Irion (art. 1970-304)
Kimble (Acts 1931, ch. 320, p. 793) 51
Menard (art. 1970-302)
Schleicher (Acts 1931, ch. 298, p. 754)
Sterling (art. 1970-316)

Nine county courts at law have been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in both civil and criminal cases:

County Court at Law of Cameron County (art. 1970-305) 52
County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County (art. 1970-305c)
County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Grayson County (art. 1970-332a)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1) 52
County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339A)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (art. 1970-339C)

Municipal Courts

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the state.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 773 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits, when punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, except seven, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law or the district court upon trial de novo.

By special statutes, the municipal courts of El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls were made "courts of record." In these municipal courts, a formal record and transcript is made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. The statutes creating these municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this state. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 954 municipal judges in this state, less than one-half presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few of the smaller cities of the state, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office range from two years to an indefinite term--at the will of the governing body.

JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established by article 2328b, V.T.C.S., in 1977. The Office operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute with implementing the provisions of article 2328b, V.T.C.S., and any rules of administration and other rules promulgated by the Supreme Court to provide for the efficient administration of justice in this state. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by this office: assist the justices and judges of the various courts and the administrative judges in discharging their administrative duties; to study and make recommendations for the improvement of the administrative and business methods employed by the courts; to consult with the judges, clerks, and court coordinators to improve the administration of justice; and prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government. This office is headed by an Administrative Director appointed by the Supreme Court who, as an additional statutory duty of office, serves as the Executive Director of the Texas Judicial Council and provides the necessary staff for the efficient operation of the Council.

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by article 2328a, V.T.C.S. Its membership is composed of: 1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; 2) two justices of the courts of appeals; 3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts; 4) the chairmen and immediate past chairmen of the House Judiciary Committee and Senate Jurisprudence Committee; 5) seven members of the bar appointed by the Governor; and 6) two non-lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist, each appointed by the Governor.

The Council makes a continuous study of the organization and operation of the courts of the state, their rules and methods of procedure, and the administration of justice; receives and considers suggestions from the judiciary, the bar, and the public; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedure; gathers civil and criminal judicial statistics; conducts investigations on the administration of justice; and makes a detailed report of its proceedings, recommendations, and suggestions to the Legislature, to the Governor, and to the Supreme Court.

Texas Court Reporters Committee

Under the authority granted to it by Section 3(b) of Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., "It (the Office of Court Administration) shall perform...such other duties as may be directed by the Supreme Court ...", the Supreme Court directed the Office of Court Administration, effective July 1, 1978, to provide the necessary staff functions for the orderly operation of the Texas Court Reporters Committee. The Texas Court Reporters Committee was established by Article 2324b to regulate and certify persons engaging in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state. The Committee is composed of an active district judge, who serves as chairman, two persons licensed to practice law in this state, and six certified court reporters.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

The Texas Constitution (art. 5, sec. 1-a) establishes this commission and empowers it to receive and consider complaints against any justice or judge concerning acts or conduct which are clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or which cast public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice.

Article 200a, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial districts in the State for administrative purposes. In each such district an active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court serves as the Presiding Judge upon appointment by the Governor.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the judges in the administrative district to consult on the state of business in the courts. The conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the district. The Presiding Judge may assign active or retired district judges residing within the administrative district to any of the district courts within the administrative district.

The Presiding Judge of one administrative district may request the Presiding Judge of another administrative district to assign district judges of that district to sit in the district court located in the administrative district of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges, and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative district for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

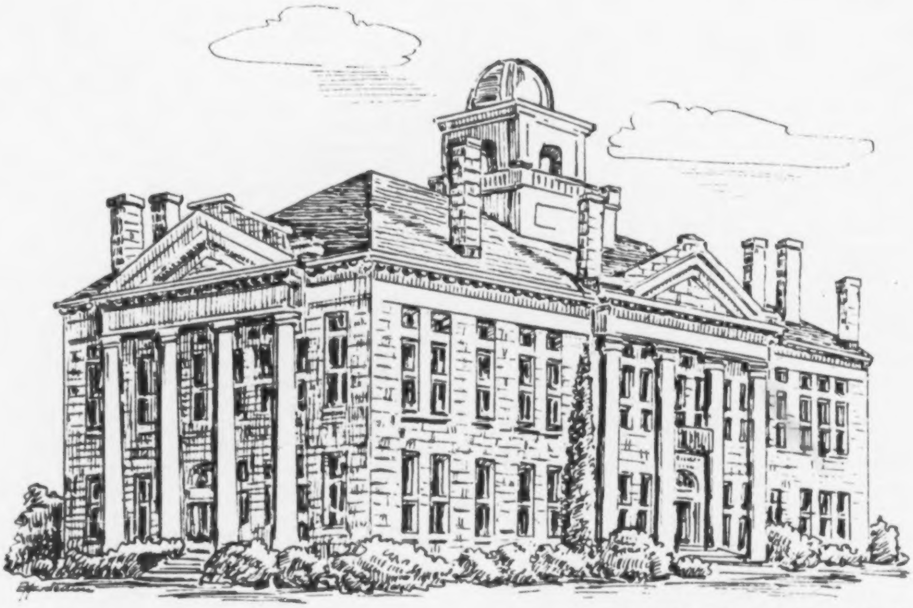
JUDICIAL BRANCH: REPORTS AND DEVELOPMENTS



BLANCO COUNTY COURTHOUSE
JOHNSON CITY,TEXAS

OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION

Article 2328b, V.T.C.S.

Definitions

Section 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "Court" means any tribunal forming a part of the judicial branch of government.

(2) "Trial court" means any tribunal forming a part of the judicial branch of government with the exception of the supreme court, the court of criminal appeals, and the courts of civil appeals.

(3) "Office of Court Administration" means the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System.

Promulgation of rules

Sec. 2. The supreme court shall promulgate rules of administration for the efficient administration of justice in this state and other rules necessary for the enforcement of this Act. When promulgating rules of administration for the efficient administration of criminal justice in this state, the supreme court will seek the advice of the court of criminal appeals.

Creation of office; direction and supervision; duties

Sec. 3. (a) The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System is hereby created.

(b) The office of court administration shall operate under the direction and supervision of the supreme court. It shall perform the duties provided in this Act and such other duties as may be directed by the supreme court and shall provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council.

Administrative director

Sec. 4 (a) The supreme court shall appoint the administrative director of the courts, who shall serve at the will of the court and sha[illegible]ordinate to, and act by authority of and under the direction of, the chief justice of the supreme court. The administrative director shall direct the operations of the office of court administration and, as an additional duty of his office, shall serve as executive director of the Texas Judicial Council. He shall serve in such other capacities as may be directed by the supreme court or the chief justice.

(b) The administrative director shall devote full time to his official duties.

Employment of personnel

Sec. 5. The administrative director, with the approval of the chief justice, shall employ such personnel as are necessary for the efficient operation of the office of court administration and of the Texas Judicial Council.

Duties of administrative director

Sec. 6. Under the direction and supervision of the chief justice, the administrative director shall implement the provisions of this Act and the rules of administration and other rules promulgated by the supreme court for the efficient administration of justice in this state. He shall:

(1) assist the justices and judges of the various courts in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with and assist the administrative judges in discharging their duties under provisions of law and rules promulgated by the supreme court;

(3) make such recommendations to the supreme court as may be appropriate for the implementation of this Act;

(4) examine the administrative and business methods and systems employed in the offices of the clerks of court and other offices related to and serving the courts and make recommendations for necessary improvement and recommend forms and other documents used to record the business of the courts;

(5) examine the state of the dockets and practices and procedures of the courts and make recommendations for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice;

(6) prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and make recommendations on the expenditure of state funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(7) consult with and assist the clerks of court and other officers and employees of the courts and of offices related to and serving the courts to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(8) consult with and make recommendations to the court administrators and court coordinators of the courts of the state to provide for uniform administration and promote the efficient administration of justice in all courts of the state;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the supreme court and by the chief justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of his office to be published in the annual report of the Texas Judicial Council.

Clerical personnel

Sec. 7. The authority of the courts to appoint clerical personnel is not limited by any provision of this Act.

Judge acting without potential jurisdiction

Sec. 8. Neither this Act nor any rule adopted under this Act may be construed to authorize a judge to act in a case of which his own court would not have potential jurisdiction under the constitution and laws of this state.

Judicial discretion

Sec. 9. Neither this Act nor any rules adopted under its authority shall be construed to authorize any infringement upon the judicial discretion of any judge of the state in the trying of a case properly before his court.

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 98, ch. 45, eff. April 5, 1977.

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Article 2328a V.T.C.S.

Creation; purposes

Section 1. There is hereby created the Texas Judicial Council for the continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts, and methods for its improvement.

Classes of members

Sec. 2. The Council shall be composed of two classes of members, one designated as ex-officio, and the other as appointive.

Ex officio members

Sec. 3. The ex officio members of the Council shall consist of the following: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Chief Justice; (2) the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, who shall remain a member as long as he holds the position of Presiding Judge; (3) two Justices of the Courts of Civil Appeals, to be designated by the Governor for overlapping four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (4) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, to be designated by the Governor for four-year terms, one to be designated in January, 1971, for a four-year term and one to be designated in January, 1973, for a four-year term, with the replacement in each case to be designated by the Governor in January of odd-numbered years; (5) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; and (6) the Chairman and the immediate past Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court may from time to time designate some other Justice of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals may from time to time designate some other Judge of that Court to act in his stead, and at his pleasure, as member of the Council. The foregoing references to justices and judges, other than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, include respectively such retired justices and judges of the same grade as are legally eligible for assignment to part-time judicial duties. In the event the Chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee or the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee is reappointed to such position, his immediate predecessor shall continue to serve on the Council as immediate past Chairman, it being the intent of the Legislature that two members of the Senate and two members of the House be at all times members of the Council; provided, however, that in the case of legislative members, cessation of membership in the Legislature shall not terminate their membership on the Council, but they shall continue to serve for their full term notwithstanding their cessation of membership in the Legislature. In the event of a vacancy in a legislative membership, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term only by the presiding officer of the appropriate house of the Legislature, and vacancies in other official memberships shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and for the unexpired term only. Ex officio members of the Council shall be entitled to all the privileges of full membership thereon and shall be regarded and treated in every respect as full members thereon.

Appointive members; tenure; quorum

Sec. 4. The appointive members of the Council shall consist of nine resident citizens of the State of Texas, seven of whom shall be members of the State Bar of Texas and two of whom shall be persons not licensed to practice law, including at least one who is by profession a journalist. The Governor of Texas shall select the appointive members of the Council for six-year overlapping terms, three to be appointed to serve until July 1, 1975, three to serve until July 1, 1977, and three to serve until July 1, 1979, and thereafter their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years; provided that appointive members of the Council holding office on the effective date of this Act shall continue in office for the balance of the term to which they were appointed, and their successors shall be selected in the manner and for the term herein provided. Vacancies in the appointive membership of the Council shall be filled by appointment of the Governor for the unexpired term only.

All members of the Council shall continue to serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified.

Five members of the Council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business of the Council.

Duties of council

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Council:

1. To make a continuous study of the organization of the courts, the rules and methods of procedure and the practice of the judicial system of the State; of the work accomplished, the results attained and the uniformity of the discretionary powers of the courts, to the end that procedure may be simplified, business expedited, and justice better administered.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

3. To formulate methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in the administration of justice.

4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. All such reports shall be considered public reports and may be given to the press as soon as filed.

6. To make investigations and reports upon such matters, touching the administration of justice as may be referred to the Council by the Supreme Court or the Legislature.

7. To hold one meeting in each calendar year, and such other meetings as may be ordered by the Council or under its authority, and at such time and place as may be designated by it or under its authority.

Powers of council

Sec. 6. The Council shall have power:

1. To hold public meetings or hearings, by and through committees of three or more of its members, require the production of books and documents, require reports from the several courts of this State, including courts not of record, as may be deemed necessary, to administer oaths and take testimony.

For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable; provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council; and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

3. To make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient for its government and that of its officers and committees, and to prescribe the duties of its officers and committees.

4. To appoint committees from its membership, and charge such committees with such of its duties and delegate to such committees such of its powers as it may deem proper.

5. To require the supplying of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the civil and criminal business transacted by the courts of this State and other information pertaining to their conduct and operation; and to prescribe procedures and forms for the supplying of such statistical data and other information.

It shall be an official duty of every justice, judge, clerk or other officer of every court of this State to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Council for the supplying of statistical data appertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by his court and of such other information concerning said court or the office of the clerk thereof as may be within the scope of the functions of the Council. Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent; if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members, but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

Compensation limited to traveling and necessary expenses

Sec. 7. No member of the Council shall receive any compensation for his services as such member, but shall be paid for actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such member, to be paid upon verified, itemized account approved by the President of the Council or by a Vice President thereof when so authorized in writing by the President. The necessary clerical expenses of the Council and its officers and committees shall be paid in like manner.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 8. If any section or portion of any section of this Act shall for any reason be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other section or portion of section of this Act.

Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 51, ch. 19. Amended by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 12, ch. 6, § 1; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2425, ch. 812, §§ 1-5, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1975, 64th Leg., p. 150, ch. 64, § 1,5 eff. April 24, 1975; Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 78, ch. 49, § 3, eff. April 11, 1979.

REPORTS OF JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established by Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., in 1977. The Office operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute to implement the provisions of the act and any rules of administration and other rules promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this state. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by the Office:

(1) assist the justices and judges of the various courts in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with and assist the administrative judges in discharging their duties under provisions of law and rules promulgated by the Supreme Court;

(3) make such recommendations to the Supreme Court as may be appropriate for the implementation of this act;

(4) examine the administrative and business methods and systems employed in the offices of the clerks of court and other offices related to and serving the courts and make recommendations for necessary improvement and recommend forms and other documents used to record the business of the courts;

(5) examine the state of the dockets and practices and procedures of the courts and make recommendations for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice;

(6) prepare and submit budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and make recommendations on the expenditures of state funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(7) consult with and assist the clerks of court and other officers and employees of the courts and of offices related to and serving the courts to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(8) consult with and make recommendations to the court administrators and court coordinators of the courts of the state to provide for uniform administration and promote the efficient adminstration of justice in all courts of the state;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief Justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of the Office to be published in the annual report of the Texas Judicial Council.

Article 2328b further provides that the Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council. In addition, under a directive from the Supreme Court, the Office also provides staff support for the Texas Court Reporters Committee.

Legislative Implementation of S.J.R. 36

At the direction of the Chief Justice, Joe R. Greenhill, the staff of the state Office of Court Administration devoted a large portion of time prior to and during the Regular Session of the 67th Legislature coordinating the efforts of many groups and individuals in the formulation of implementing legislation for S.J.R. 36, the 1980 constitutional amendment conferring intermediate appellate jurisdiction of criminal cases on the courts of appeals.

Members of the staff of the Office attended hearings of the House Judiciary Committee held on November 10, 1979, March 21, 1980, June 20, 1980, and September 5, 1980.

In the spring of 1980, the National Center for State Courts received financial support from the M.D. Anderson Foundation to conduct, at the request of Chief Justice Greenhill, a study on the implementation of S.J.R. 36. Several work sessions were held by the state Office of Court Administration and the staff of the National Center to assist the Center in its study. The final report on the study was transmitted to the Chief Justice on September 2, 1980, and on September 5 the House Judiciary Committee adopted the recommendations contained in the report with a few minor changes.

In coordination with the study of the National Center, the Office of Court Administration began preparing a working draft of legislation to implement S.J.R. 36 in late summer, 1980. A complete first draft was delivered to Chief Justice Greenhill on September 15, 1980.

Concurrently with the work of the National Center and the state Office of Court Administration, Chief Justice Greenhill called meetings of the chief justices of the courts of (then) civil appeals on April 11 and May 23, 1980. Following the adoption of S.J.R. 36 by the voters in the general election on November 4, 1980, a further meeting of the chief justices was held on November 21, 1980. Following this meeting, several committees were appointed to make specific recommendations to the Legislature for the implementation of S.J.R. 36. These were:

(1) Committee to Implement Statutory Changes in the Code of Criminal Procedure

Hon. Carl E. F. Dally, Chairman
Hon. James G. Denton
Mr. Robert Huttash
Mr. Frank Maloney
Mr. John Holmes
Mr. Dain P. Whitworth

Ex Officio: Senator Ray Farabee
Representative Bob Maloney
Representative Lynn Nabers

(2) Committee to Consider Number of Judges to be added; Staff Support; Equalization of the Dockets and other Planning

Hon. Quentin Keith, Chairman
Hon. Truman Roberts
Hon. Charles Barrow
Hon. Tom F. Coleman
Hon. Clarence Guittard
Hon. Austin McCloud
Hon. Charles Reynolds
Hon. William J. Cornelius

Ex Officio: Senator Ray Farabee
Representative Bob Maloney

(3) Presentation of the Budget and Other Matters to the Legislature

Hon. Wendell Odom, Chairman
Hon. Jim Wallace
Hon. S. F. Preslar

(4) Implementation of Automation, Library and other Equipment Needs

Hon. Frank Evans, Chairman
Hon. Robert M. Campbell
Hon. Carlos C. Cadena
Hon. Frank McDonald
Mr. Roy Rawls

Legislation to enact the statutory changes needed to implement S.J.R. 36 was filed as H.B. 499 by Representative Bob Maloney on January 21, 1981, and S.B. 265 by Senator Ray Farabee on January 26, 1981. H.B. 499 was referred to the House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence on February 2, considered by that committee in a public hearing and reported out favorably a committee substitute presented by Senator Farabee which incorporated a large number of the recommendations of the committee chaired by Judge Dallv, listed above. This substitute was debated and amended on the Senate floor on March 3 and further amended and passed on March 10. The Senate bill was referred to House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee on March 12, which held a public hearing on March 25 and referred the bill to the previously named subcommittee on H.B. 499. The subcommittee met on April 6 and decided to use S.B. 265 as the vehicle for constructing the House version of implementing legislation. A further subcommittee meeting was held on April 13, and on April 22 the subcommittee reported S.B. 265 back to the full committee with several amendments. The full committee added several other amendments and report S.B. 265 to the House Calendars Committee on April 29. Placed on the Emergency Calendar, the bill was debated, amended, and passed to third reading in the House on May 8. Further amendments were added and the bill passed on May 30. The Senate refused to concur in House amendments and a conference committee met several times before filing a conference committee report on May 30. It was adopted by the House on May 31 and the Senate on June 1. The Office of Court Administration provided assistance to the sponsors, their staffs, committee staffs, and the Texas Legislative Council in coordinating the technical aspects of seeing that the bill progressed in correct form.

Concurrently with the work of the Committee on Statutory Changes chaired by Judge Dally, the committees chaired by Justices Evans and Keith met several times to formulate recommendations to the Legislature on the additional judges, staff, equipment, and library resources needed to properly implement S.J.R. 36. The Office of Court Administration provided staff support to these committees and under authority of Section 6(6) of Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., assisted the individual courts of appeals in preparing and presenting their recommendations to the special committees.

Assistance to Courts of Appeals Clerks

Realizing that changes in legal procedure and vastly increased caseloads would demand increased speed and efficiency in the clerks' offices of the courts of appeals with little increase in personnel, the clerks recognized early in the year that improved clerical procedures and equipment would be vital. Therefore, the clerks of the courts of civil appeals met with the Office of Court Administration on March 13, 1981, to discuss the needs of the courts in view of the anticipated impact of S.J.R. 36.

As a result of this meeting, four committees were selected to work with the Office of Court Administration to study the present administrative systems of the courts and to design more efficient systems for the processing of civil and criminal appeals, in accordance with S.J.R. 36 as implemented by S.B. 265:

(1) Caseload Management Information System Committee;
(2) Automation and Equipment Committee;
(3) Accounting and Fiscal Committee; and
(4) Personnel and Training Committee.

The reports of these committees detailed recommended procedures and processes for more efficient operation of the courts of appeals. The Committee on Automation and Equipment made a thorough study of available automated equipment. The staff of the state Office of Court Administration, in conjunction with the State Auditor's Office and representatives of the courts of appeals, conducted an intensive review of word processing applications to properly identify the automated equipment needs of the courts and to determine equipment specifications to meet these needs. The committee researched and viewed demonstrations of automated equipment from all vendors whose equipment met the minimum identified needs of the courts of appeals. Following this detailed study, the committee selected a system that it determined could best meet these needs. This system was demonstrated to all of the clerks of the courts of appeals at a meeting in Fort Worth on June 11 and 12, 1981. After this demonstration, the clerks ratified the findings of the committee and recommended that each court of appeals purchase the recommended system, as funds become available. On July 3, 1981, a special committee of judges of the courts of appeals appointed by Chief Justice Greenhill met in Austin to consider these recommendations and to view a demonstration of the equipment. The committee consisted of Justices Frank Evans, chairman; Paul C. Murphy; Clarence Guittard; Paul Nye; Bob Shannon; and Quentin Keith. The judges' committee confirmed the recommendations of the clerks' committee and recommended that each court of appeals purchase the same type of equipment. The judges concluded that this would enable the same programming to be used by all of the courts which would result in significant savings in both time and expenditure of state funds. In August, an application was made by the Supreme Court on behalf of eight of the courts to the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office for grant funds to pay the first installment of a four year lease-purchase of recommended data/word processing equipment for the courts.

The state Office of Court Administration has acquired compatible equipment to enable it to develop the necessary programming systems to allow the individual courts of appeals to make the most efficient use of this equipment. The first program to be developed and implemented for the courts was the automated case management system. This system was designed around a manual case management system developed by the clerks of the courts of appeals and the staff of the state Office of Court Administration. An accounting, payroll, and business records system is presently being developed and will shortly be implemented. The Office will also provide training and advice in the use of this equipment in other areas of data and word processing.

Legislative Liaison

In addition to its activity in the development of the implementing legislation for the new constitutional amendment and in obtaining state appropriations to fund the new intermediate appellate court structure, the Office continued its normal liaison duties with committees and members of the 67th Legislature during the regular session.

During the session, more than 100 requests for special statistical or fiscal reports on proposed or pending bills were received from members of the Legislature and staffs of the various legislative committees having jurisdiction over bills affecting the courts. These requests usually entailed the preparation of individualized reports for reply.

The staff drafted more than 50 bills for members of the Legislature, judges, and organizations to consider for introduction during the 67th Session. Assistance of various types was provided to the legislative committees concerning the Judiciary, including the House Judiciary and Judicial Affairs Committees, and the Senate State Affairs and Jurisprudence Committees. The staff also prepared a daily memo analyzing bills that would affect the judicial branch of government and distributed it to the justices of the Supreme Court, the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, and other interested officials of the judiciary.

State Budget Estimates for the Judiciary

The Act establishing the Office of Court Administration provides that the Office is to prepare and submit to the Legislature budget estimates for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government. In fulfilling this responsibility for the 67th Legislature, the Office of Court Administration worked with the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning to coordinate the preparation of budget requests by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members personally conferred with personnel and justices of each of the courts of civil appeals, the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the state-wide judicial agencies located in Austin, to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budgets.

Support to Other Agencies

The staff presented lectures at schools sponsored by the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association mandated by Article 5972, V.T.C.S., and for municipal court judges conducted under the provisions of Article 1200f, V.T.C.S. Technical assistance was provided at conferences of the County and District Clerks Association and the Texas Court Clerks Association to encourage the improvement of reporting rates on the monthly court activity reports discussed below.

The Office also provided information to many other state agencies, professional organizations, and private citizens that require current information on the judicial system.

Reporting Systems

The Office, under the authority of Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., which established the Texas Judicial Council, maintains an extensive reporting system for judicial statistics from all of the courts of the state. This judicial information system was developed by the state Office of Court Administration in conjunction with representatives of the different levels of courts, both appellate and trial, to meet the identified needs of this state.

Approximately 2,500 reports from the courts throughout the state are submitted each month to the Office on a case category basis. These include a five-page report for the activities of the courts of appeals, an eight-page report for the district courts, a five-page report for county-level courts, and one-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts. Upon receipt, the reports are checked for internal inconsistencies and entered into a computerized data system. This provides ready access to the current status of the dockets of the courts throughout the state on a county-by-county basis. Numerous requests are received and complied with throughout the year for this type of information.

In counties containing multiple district or county courts, judicial statistics are maintained on a county-level basis. Justice of the peace statistics are maintained on an individual court basis. Municipal court statistics are maintained on a city-wide basis. The clerks of the fourteen courts of appeals submit a monthly case by case report on the status of all cases pending before each court. Annual reports on court activity are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The Office prepares a monthly consolidated report on the docket activity of the district courts located in each of the nine administrative judicial districts. This report is submitted to each of the nine presiding judges to aid them in their administrative duties. In addition, a consolidated statewide report on the docket activity of the district courts is submitted on a monthly basis to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

The Office also prepares a monthly consolidated report upon the status of cases pending before each of the fourteen courts of appeals. This report is submitted to the Supreme Court for use as the basis for equalization of the dockets among the fourteen courts of appeals under the authority of Article 1738, V.T.C.S. During 1981, 805 cases were ordered transferred by the Supreme Court among the courts, as follows:

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., to make a ". . . continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods of its improvement." In addition, the Council maintains statistics on docket activity of the courts of the State; conducts studies on methods to improve the administration of justice; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedures; and makes a detailed report upon the proceedings of the Council to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Supreme Court.

Membership of the Council

Council membership is composed of: 1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; 2) two justices of the courts of appeals; 3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts; 4) the chairman and immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; 5) seven members of the bar appointed by the Governor, and 6) two non-lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist.

Three meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during 1981--on January 16, April 10, and September 18.

Professional Education For Municipal Judges

Article 1200e, V.T.C.S., directs the Council to encourage the development of courses for the continuing legal education of municipal judges; to promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses and the accreditation of such courses; and to submit an annual report on this program to the Governor, the Attorney General, and the city attorney of the cities of those judges who have not attended an accredited course. The Council is empowered to grant individual judges waivers from the provisions of the law. An Accreditation Committee composed of Judge Tom G. Davis, Chairman, and Chief Justice William J. Cornelius, and Judge Joe Spurlock, II, was appointed to make recommendations to the Council on the accreditation of courses and the granting of waivers.

During the year, the Council accredited 11 courses and over 400 municipal judges attended these courses. (See table below for details.) In addition, the Council granted 32 waivers from the education program.

Establishment of Criminal Justice Division

Following review by a committee, the Council, at its January 16, 1981, meeting, endorsed legislation proposed by the Office of the Governor to continue the funding of programs previously financed by federal L.E.A.A. grants. Legislation was enacted creating the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office to administer the funds.

The enabling legislation provided that each defendant in a criminal case, upon conviction, would pay as court cost a special tax to fund this program.

Crime Victims Compensation Act

Also at the January meeting, the Council received a report from a representative of the Industrial Accident Board (IAB) on the status of the Crime Victims Compensation Fund established by the 66th Legislature. It was explained that the tax imposed as court costs in felony and Class A and B misdemeanor cases for funding the program had not been sufficient to pay all of the legitimate claims filed by crime victims. Mr. Jerry Belcher of the IAB indicated the Board would probably recommend to the Legislature that court costs be imposed on Class C misdemeanors. After discussion, the Council voted to recommend that the Legislature seek to provide the necessary funds for this program but not necessarily from Class C misdemeanor convictions.

Maintenance of Appellate Records

The Council continued its study, begun in 1980, of storage space for the maintenance of the records of the courts of appeals. Upon the recommendation of a committee, the Council directed the staff to prepare proposed amendments to Article 1831, V.T.C.S., to incorporate the following recommendations:

(1) That the minutes, original opinions, indexes, and general court dockets of all of the courts of appeals be kept permanently; however, that after 10 years these records be microfilmed, microfiched, or otherwise filmed for permanent retention by the said courts.

(2) In all future cases, the clerk, or other personnel designated by the individual courts, should identify those cases which contain highly concentrated, unique and valuable information unlikely to be found in any other source available to researchers. These cases, after the statutory retention period, should be offered to the state archives or other historical agency for historical purposes.

(3) Article 1831, V.T.C.S., should be amended to direct the courts of appeals to destroy all of the records filed in such courts at the conclusion of the statutory retention period of 10 years, with the exceptions as provided in 1 and 2 above.

(4) Even prior to the expiration of the 10-year retention period as indicated in Recommendation 3 above, that the courts of appeals be directed to remove and destroy all duplicate papers in each of the case files stored by that court.

(5) Article 1831 should be further amended to provide that upon the issuance of the mandate in each case, the clerk of the court should notify the attorneys of record in each case that they may withdraw their exhibits submitted to the court within a 60-day period; otherwise the exhibits will be destroyed at the end of the mandatory retention period along with all of the papers in the case.

(6) As regards the records which have previously been transferred to regional depositories, the proper authorities having jurisdiction over these depositories should be authorized to review and select for permanent retention such records for historic purposes as in their discretion they deem proper.

(7) That all of the records of the court such as financial records, administrative correspondence, and other non-permanent materials should be destroyed immediately upon conclusion of the retention period established therefor by the State Records Preservation Advisory Board.

Non-partisan Election of Judges

A committee of the Council studied a proposal for the non-partisan election of judges. This proposal had the prior recommendation of the Legislative Committee of the Judicial Section of the State Bar and was introduced in the 1981 Legislative Session as House Bill 18. This proposal provided for the non-partisan election of all appellate, district, and county court at law judges. Other provisions prohibited non-partisan candidates from participating in partisan election activities and political parties from assisting candidates in the non-partisan judicial elections. The Council endorsed this proposal at its January meeting.

Uniform Dismissal Docket

As a step toward the goal of reducing delay in litigation, the Council recommended that the Supreme Court or the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts adopt a rule providing for a uniform dismissal docket, with adequate notice to all parties.

Taxation of Judicial Retirement Benefits

Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill met with the Council on two occasions to advise on the new IRS regulations that could make the accrued benefits of a judge in the Texas Judicial Retirement System taxable in the year such benefits vest. The Council had, in April, adopted a resolution urging the Internal Revenue Service to exempt regular state retirement plans such as the Texas Judicial Retirement System from any regulation which would have this effect. The Council was informed at the September meeting that the IRS regulation had been adopted without the requested amendment. The Council then voted to apprise members of the Texas Congressional delegation of this situation and urge them to introduce legislation to amend the Internal Revenue Code to prevent the taxation of these benefits at the time of vesting.

Implementation of S.J.R. 36

The Council recommended that the Legislature enact comprehensive legislation to properly implement the new constitutional amendment vesting in the Courts of Appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and to provide adequate funding to enable the courts of appeals to efficiently handle this increased jurisdiction.

Simplified Venue Practice

After reviewing past proposals before the Legislature on venue reform, the Council urged the Legislature to give serious consideration to statutory changes to simplify the present venue practice.

Statistics Oversight

A special committee of the Council reviewed all present reporting forms of the Texas Judicial Council and the information requested by the Council of the individual courts and local governments involving judicial activity. The forms, recently revised for use beginning January 1, 1981, were found to be adequate and reasonable for obtaining the information needed by the Council.

Salaries of Presiding Judges

Pursuant to the authority vested in it by Article 200a, Section 11(a), the Council set the annual salaries of the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts of Texas for the biennium September 1, 1981, through August 31, 1983, at three thousand dollars ($3,000) per year, except where otherwise provided by law.

Municipal Courts of Record

The Council recommended the Legislature adopt a statewide bill allowing cities, on a local option basis, to create municipal courts of record.

Continuing Projects

At the end of the year, several topics were pending before the Council, with committees appointed in each area to report back to the Council at the appropriate time:

-- Assistance to courts of appeals in obtaining adequate funding from the 68th Legislature.

-- Drafting Uniform Rules of Evidence pursuant to S.R. 565.

-- County bail bond board statistical reports pursuant to S.B. 727.

-- Possible changes in the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court.

Texas Court Reporters Committee

The Texas Court Reporters Committee was established by Article 2324b, V.T.C.S., to regulate and certify persons engaging in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state. The Committee is composed of an active district judge, who serves as chairman; two persons licensed to practice law in this state; and six certified court reporters, all of whom are appointed by the Supreme Court for six-year, overlapping terms of office. The Committee is charged with the responsibility of effectuating the purposes of Article 2324b: to receive and pass upon applications for certification; to administer tests; to determine the qualifications of persons applying for certification; to receive verified complaints on the professional conduct of certified reporters; to conduct hearings, receive testimony, and pass upon the merits of such verified complaints; and to make rulings thereon, including the revocation of certificates previously granted by the Committee.

Certification of Applicants

Article 2324b requires that all persons who desire to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this state, be certified by the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Committee.

Under the provisions of Section 16(a) of this Article, persons who were actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting in the courts of this state prior to the effective date of the act are eligible for certification without the necessity of taking an examination. Under this provision, 1,026 persons have been certified. The Committee administers tests to determine the qualifications of other persons applying for certification as provided for in Section 12 of the Act. During 1981, it administered four examinations to 307 aplicants. Because not all of the applicants are successful at the first or subsequent exams, the 307 applicants represent 233 individuals. Of these, 115 successfully completed both portions of the test and were officially certified as shorthand reporters. During this same period, the Committee conducted two formal complaint hearings. A total of 1,447 persons have been certified under the provisions of this Act.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

[Report prepared and submitted by the staff of the Commission on Judicial Conduct.]

The Commission on Judicial Conduct was created by constitutional amendment in 1965 as the Judicial Qualifications Commission with disciplinary authority over the judges of the district, criminal district, and appellate courts. In 1970 the jurisdiction of the Commission was extended to include all of the judges in the state, and the sanctions of censure, after a formal hearing, and private reprimand were added to the prior sanction of removal from office. In 1977, the name of the Commission was changed to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct, two new members (one lay member and one justice of the peace) were added to the Commission and the additional sanction of suspension from office, with or without pay, pending final disposition of the charge was added to the powers of the Commission. It gave the master, who is appointed by the Supreme Court to conduct hearings, reduce testimony to writing, and make recommendations to the Commission, the same powers of a district judge relative to contempt for failure to appear as a witness or to produce documents. This amendment also extended the possible sanctions available to the Commission to include a private or public reprimand and to issue a public statement when sources other than the commission had caused notoriety concerning a judge or the Commission. It also authorized the Supreme Court to prohibit a judge who had been finally removed from office from holding a judicial office in the future. Upon the recommendation of the Commission for the suspension, censure, retirement, or removal of a justice of the Supreme Court, the amendment provided that seven justices from the Courts of Appeals would be selected by lot to consider the recommendation in place of the Supreme Court.

Membership of Commission

Membership of the Commission consists of two appellate justices, two district judges, one justice of the peace, two attorneys, and four lay members. The judicial members are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas, the attorneys by the Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas, and the lay members by the Governor of Texas, all with the advice and consent of the Senate. No two members may serve from the same Supreme Judicial District with the exception of the justice of the peace who serves at large and is selected by the Supreme Court from a list of five names submitted by the Executive Committee of the Justice of the Peace and Constables Association of Texas.

The Commission operates under Rules for the Removal or Retirement of Judges, adopted and promulgated by the Supreme Court, and provides staff, confidentiality, and a hearing agency to receive, screen, and investigate complaints.

Investigation of Complaints

Under the laws of this State and the rules laid down by the Supreme Court, the Commission is limited in its jurisdiction to a consideration of alleged acts of judicial misconduct. Acts of judicial misconduct may include conduct both on and off the bench. All complainants are asked to file a notarized statement of their complaint. When this notarized statement is received the matter is reviewed to determine whether or not the Commission has jurisdiction or authority to act in the matter. If, after review, it is determined that the matters in the complaint are not within the jurisdiction of the Commission, the complaint is dismissed and the complainant so advised.

If, after review, it is determined that the Commission has the authority to act, the complaint is docketed and assigned for investigation. Upon completion of the investigation a full report is made to the members of the Commission for such action as the Commission deems appropriate. The Commission meets approximately six times a year in Austin. All of the complaints that have been docketed and investigated are placed on the agenda for consideration by the Commission and the Commission may do any of the following:

(1) Dismiss the complaint
(2) Issue a private reprimand
(3) Issue a public reprimand
(4) Initiate formal proceedings and conduct a formal hearing
(5) After a formal hearing, issue a public censure
(6) After a formal hearing, recommend to the Supreme Court involuntary retirement or removal from office, or
(7) Suspend the judge from office, with or without pay, immediately upon being indicted by a State or Federal Grand Jury for a felony offense.

If a formal hearing is ordered, the Supreme Court is requested to appoint a master to hear the case. The hearing is conducted just like any other civil trial. The eventual disposition of the case is determined by the evidence that is developed during the course of such hearing.

Authority of Commission

The Constitution authorizes removal, or the imposition of other sanctions for ". . . willful or persistent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of [the duties of a judge] or [which] casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice . . ." TEX. CONST. art. 5, sec. 1-a. The Commission investigates complaints, initiates formal hearings, and makes recommendations to the Supreme Court, but only the Supreme Court can remove a judge.

The Commission has no authority to act as an appellate court. It cannot set aside or otherwise change the judgment of any court. The Commission cannot consider allegations against a judge for making findings of fact, reaching a legal conclusion, or applying the law as he understands it. The granting of child custody, a judge's ruling on the admissibility of evidence, or a finding of guilty on a speeding charge are examples of matters for review by the proper appellate court.

1981 Commission Actions

On January 1, 1981, there were 14 complaints pending that had not been finally resolved. These complaints were disposed of in the following manner. One judge was publicly censured and reprimanded after a formal hearing. A subsequent complaint against that judge resulted in another formal hearing and a recommendation to the Supreme Court for removal from office. The Supreme Court decided against removal. A motion for rehearing is now pending before that Court. Another judge was publicly censured after a formal hearing. One judge was privately reprimanded, one resigned, eight complaints were dismissed, and two were carried forward to 1982.

There were 34 new complaints received during 1981. As a result of these, two judges were privately reprimanded, one publicly reprimanded, one suspended without pay after grand jury indictment, one died while investigation was pending, 16 complaints were dismissed, and 13 carried forward to 1982. One complaint, which had received wide publicity, was dismissed. Because of the publicity the Commission decided to make one of its rare public statements to clarify the issue. The Commission conducted 14 informal hearings to allow judges to make personal appearances before the Commission to answer charges filed.

Approximately 200 matters were never docketed because they were resolved either over the telephone or by a visit from one of the investigators. Only those matters which appeared, after investigation, to have merit and could not be resolved otherwise, were docketed.

RECENT COURT DECISIONS
Selected Decisions Affecting Court Operations

Contempt and Sanctions

A finding of contempt for refusal to answer an interrogatory in a pending suit can be collaterally attacked by writ of habeas corpus. Otherwise there would be no remedy, because there is no remedy by appeal from the trial court order. Ex parte Abell, 613 S.W.2d 255 (Tex. 1981).

A plaintiff has an absolute, unqualified right to take a non-suit, upon timely motion, as long as the defendant has not made a claim for affirmative relief and even though the defendant may have a motion pending for sanctions for refusal to answer interrogatories. McQuillen v. Hughes, 626 S.W.2d 495 (Tex. 1981).

While a purely coercive confinement for contempt will not constitute a criminal conviction for purposes of double jeopardy prohibition, a flat confinement as punishment only for an act constituting contempt does constitute such a conviction and cannot lawfully be imposed for same act for which punishment has previously been imposed. Where first contempt order for nonpayment of child support provided for a fine of $100.00 and confinement for 24 hours, or until the contempt was purged by paying back child support (which contempt order was held by the Supreme Court to provide for alternate methods of release), a writ of habeas corpus was denied upon the issuance of a second order providing for confinement for 180 days and until the back child support was paid, such that the 180-day period was deemed to be for punishment, with coercive confinement to follow thereafter. Ex parte Englutt, 619 S.W.2d 279 (Tex. 1981).

A hearing is not necessary before a trial court can deem as admitted a request for admissions. When a party does not answer requests for admissions or move for more time to answer, the requests are deemed admitted by operation of Rule 169, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. This is so whether or not the trial court signs an order deeming a request admitted. Elkins v. Jones, 613 S.W.2d 533 (Tex. Civ. App.--Austin 1981, no writ).

The question of whether sanctions should be imposed for failing to abide by discovery and supplement interrogatory answers is within the sound discretion of the trial court, subject to review only for a clear showing of an abuse of discretion. Tenngasco Gas Gathering Co. v. Fischer, 624 S.W.2d 301 (Tex. Ct. App.--Corpus Christi 1981, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

A trial court has discretion to impose sanctions or penalties, including exclusion of evidence, where a party has failed or refused to reasonably comply with discovery requests, or answer interrogatories pursuant to discovery requests, and the trial court's action can be set aside only upon a showing of a clear abuse of discretion. TEIA v. Meyer, 620 S.W.2d 179 (Tex. Civ. App.--Waco 1981, no writ).

Probation and Deferred Adjudication

Shock probation, under Article 42.12, Section 3e, Code of Criminal Procedure, constitutes the suspension of execution, rather than the suspension of imposition, of sentence. Therefore, when probation is revoked after a defendant has been placed on shock probation, defendant having actually served a portion of his sentence, the convicting court, upon such revocation of probation, has no authority to cumulate the applicable sentence not originally ordered to be served cumulatively. O'Hara v. State, 626 S.W.2d 32 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

No appeal may be taken from a determination to proceed with an adjudication of guilt subsequent to the grant of a deferred adjudication. Article 42.12, Section 3d(b), Code of Criminal Procedure. Therefore, defendant's contention that evidence used to support the adjudication of guilt was the fruit of an illegal search and seizure cannot be reached, the adjudication of guilt not being subject to appeal. Holder v. State, 618 S.W.2d 80 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

A motion to revoke probation must be heard by the trial court within 20 days of the filing of a defendant's request for a hearing on the state's motion to revoke. Article 42.12, Section 8(a), Code of Criminal Procedure. The time period begins when defendant files his motion, regardless of whether the State subsequently files an amended motion to revoke. If the hearing is not held within the 20 day period, the defendant is to be released from custody. However, failure to release defendant following such 20 day period amounts to unlawful pre-hearing confinement only and does not constitute error that taints the trial court's decision to revoke probation. Defendant's remedy to be timely released must be obtained, if at all, prior to revocation. Aguilar v. State, 621 S.W.2d 781 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

Juries

A juror's comment during deliberation that it did not matter how the jury answered special issue #4 (concerning whether defendant's negligence was a proximate cause of decedent's death) because plaintiff would recover in any event, was held to be material error and probably resulted in harm to plaintiff as a matter of law. Flores v. Dosher, 622 S.W.2d 537 (Tex. 1981).

Bias or prejudice does not come within the meaning of "disability" as used in Article 36.29, Code of Criminal Procedure. Therefore, it is not error to refuse to excuse a juror for disability for an alleged bias or prejudice growing out of circumstances occurring subsequent to the selection process. The determination of whether a juror is "mentally" disabled is a determination to be made within the discretion of the trial court, and, absent a showing of abuse of such discretion, no reversible error will be found. Bass v. State, 622 S.W.2d 101 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

Following the jury's request to be dismissed because they were unable to reach a verdict, the court instructed the jury that, "if you could end this litigation by your verdict, you should do so. I don't mean to say by that any individual should yield his or her conscience and positive conviction, but I do mean that when you are in the jury room, you should discuss this matter among yourselves carefully, to listen to each other, and try, if you can, to reach a conclusion on the issue." This instruction was deemed to be addressed to the jury as a whole and did not coerce jurors to vote against their prior convictions. Love v. State, 627 S.W.2d 457 (Tex. Ct. App.--Houston [1st Dist] 1981).

Jury Charge: Lesser Included Offense

The determination of whether a charge on a lesser included offense is required involves a two-step analysis. First, the lesser included offense must be included within the proof offered to establish the offense charged. Second, there must be some evidence that if defendant is guilty, he is guilty only of the lesser offense. Therefore, proof that defendant committed robbery while also proving theft and assault will not require a charge on the lesser included offense(s) unless there is some proof that defendant only committed theft and/or assault. Royster v. State, 622 S.W.2d 442 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

Court Proceedings

Writ of mandamus from the Supreme Court seeking an order compelling district court reporter to deliver statement of facts is denied. The Supreme Court does not have original jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus against a county officer or district officer, other than a district judge. The official court reporter of a district court is a district officer not subject to mandamus power of the Supreme Court. Walker & Co. v. Johnson, 623 S.W.2d 306 (Tex. 1981).

Defendant's communication to wife in the presence of a third person lost privileged character where defendant was thereafter divorced. Since his ex-wife was competent to testify and since the communication was not privileged, the admission of the communication was not error. Bear v. State, 612 S.W.2d 931 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

There are essentially four traditional policy considerations underlying the doctrine of res judicata: promotion of judicial economy, prevention of vexatious litigation, prevention of double recovery and promotion of stability of decisions. A suit resulting in judgment in favor of defendant-employer brought by plaintiff-employee for damages as a result of defendant's negligence will not, under the doctrine of res judicata, preclude a later suit brought upon the allegation that the employer (being a subscriber to Compensation Act at the time plaintiff was hired) breached an implied term of the employment contract with plaintiff by defendant's failing to maintain its subscription to the act without giving notice as provided in Article 8306, Section 3c, V.T.C.S.

The doctrine of res judicata in Texas precludes litigating in subsequent actions issues that might have been adjudicated between the same parties if, and only if, such issues constituted part of a cause of action finally adjudicated on the merits in the prior action.

A functional approach to the application of the doctrine provides that issues that might have been determined in a prior action constitute part of a cause of action adjudicated in such prior action if litigation of these issues in a subsequent action between the same parties is offensive to the policy considerations underlying the doctrine of res judicata.

The stability of decisions in negligence actions is not threatened, in the absence of danger of double recovery, by maintenance of a subsequent action between the same parties for contractual recovery of equivalent of workers compensation benefits. Thus, the policy of promoting stability of decisions does not mandate that plaintiff's present action be barred under the doctrine of res judicata. Plaintiff has split legal, rather than factual, theories of recovery in her two actions against defendant. Gilbert v. Fireside Enterprises, Inc., 611 S.W.2d 869 (Tex.Civ. App.--Dallas 1981, no writ).

A retired district judge, who has consented to be subject to assignment, may be assigned by a presiding judge of an administrative judicial district to hear a case in a particular district court where the regular judge of such court is not disabled or disqualified and is present and is trying other cases. Permian Corp. v. Pickett, 620 S.W.2d 878 (Tex. Civ. App.--El Paso 1981, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

A writ of mandamus seeking an order to compel a trial judge to hear pre-trial motions after the trial court judge had recused himself in all cases involving defendant was properly denied. Article V, Section 11, Texas Constitution, provides that a judge is to sit, except in any case wherein he may be interested, or where either of parties may be connected with him, either by affinity or consanguinity, or when he shall have been counsel in the case. The provision does not preclude a judge from disqualifying himself under Canon 3C (1)(a), Code of Judicial Conduct, when impartiality might reasonably be questioned. Trial before an unbiased judge is essential to due process, since concept of evenhanded justice is at the core of any definition of due process. Manges v. Garcia, 616 S.W.2d 380 (Tex. Civ. App.-- San Antonio 1981, no writ).

Appellee, having been given no notice of the filing of an appeal bond or certificate of deposit by appellant, and having checked with the district clerk respecting such file, and having been informed that such had not been filed, disposed of property subject to the appeal. Under these circumstances, where harm has been shown, the appeal is dismissed. Although failure to notify a party of filing of a bond or certificate of deposit is not jurisdictional, it is nonetheless within the power of the court of appeals to dismiss an appeal when there has been a failure to comply with requirements of the Rules of Civil Procedure and harm, as a result, has been shown. Nolana Development Assoc. v. Jefferson Savings and Loan Assoc., 612 S.W.2d 676 (Tex. Civ. App.--Corpus Christi 1981, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

Frivolous Appeal

Where, based on the entire record, applicable law, and the points raised in appellant's brief, it was determined that appellant had no reasonable expectation the trial court judgment would be reversed, the appeal was groundless, frivolous, and brought only for delay and caused injury to appellee, appellant was assessed a fine of $1,000 and all costs. Beago v. Ceres, 619 S.W.2d 293 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [1st Dist] 1981, no writ).

Bail

Bail pending appeal may be reviewed and brought to the Court of Criminal Appeals by appeal under Articles 44.04 (g) and 44.34, Code of Criminal Procedure or by original habeas corpus application under the constitutional authority of the Court of Criminal Appeals to consider applications for writ of habeas corpus that present issues concerning bail pending appeal. Ex parte Spaulding, 612 S.W.2d 509 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

Admonishments

A trial court does not have to admonish a defendant concerning the dangers of self-representation every time a defendant elects to plead guilty. "Self-representation," as enunciated in Faretta v. California, 422 U.S. 806 (1975), applies only to cases when a defendant appears in court to contest guilt and not when he appears without counsel to confess guilt. The issue is whether there is a knowing, voluntary, and intelligent waiver of counsel. To the extent that Linsey v. State, 574 S.W.2d 144 (1978) conflicts with this holding, it is overruled. Johnson v. State, 614 S.W.2d 116 (Tex. Crim. App. 1981).

RECENT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

Selected Opinions Affecting Court Operations

The authorization for the rendition of advisory opinions by the Attorney General is found in Section 22 of Article IV of the Texas Constitution and has been more specifically defined in Article 4399, V.T.C.S. This is a quasi-judicial function, Glimpse v. Bexar County, 160 S.W.2d 996 (Tex. Civ. App.--San Antonio 1942, writ ref'd), and while the opinions do not have the force of law, they are entitled to be given considerable weight in determining proper construction of statutes. City of Houston v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co., 504 S.W.2d 554 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist] 1973, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

Traffic Offense Proceedings

MW-428: January 20, 1982. Pertaining to Article 6701d, Section 143A, relating to "defensive driving course" as alternative to court proceedings:

1. A judge must permit a defendant to take the defensive driving course in every case where a motion to take the course is properly made and where the defendant is eligible for the course.

2. The defendant may exercise his right to elect to take the defensive driving course at any time prior to commencement of his trial on the charges brought. If he has not done so, the right to take the driving course as an alternative to court proceedings is no longer available to him.

3. A judge may not require a defendant to enter any plea as a precondition to permitting the defendant to elect to take the defensive driver's course under Section 143A(a)(2).

4. A judge may not require a defendant who elects to take the defensive driving course to prove to the court beforehand that the course he intends to take has been approved by the Department of Public Safety.

5. A judge has no specific authority under Section 143A to require submission of a notarized sworn statement by the defendant attesting that he has not completed another defensive driving course within the prior two-year period.

6. Where defendant fails to complete the defensive driver's course and fails to comply with the provisions of Section 143A after being granted permission of court, the court may proceed with prosecution of the charges as if the defendant had never elected to or been permitted to take the course.

7. A judge may advise a defendant of the specific actions necessary to fulfill the requirements of Section 143A(a)(2).

8. Section 143A does not permit a judge to require that a defendant personally appear in court to present "written evidence" of completion of the defensive driving course.

MW-441: February 8, 1982. A justice of the peace is not authorized to dismiss traffic citations prior to filing, but may afterward do so. A justice of the peace is required to enter on his criminal docket all proceedings pursuant to Article 6701d, Section 143A, V.T.C.S.

Fines, Costs and Fees--Criminal

MW-322: April 14, 1981. Because both the sheriff and county clerk have responsibilities in the collection of fines, judges of the county criminal courts may direct a defendant to pay the amount of the fine to either the sheriff or the county clerk, acting on behalf of the State.

MW-386: November 6, 1981. Article 45.53 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, as amended provides that a defendant placed in jail by order of a justice court may serve out his fine at the rate of not less than $15.00 for each day. Article 42.03 of the Code of Criminal Procedure requires justice courts to give credit for preconviction jail time served.

MW-442: February 9, 1982. The word "fees" as used in section 1G of Article 6701h, V.T.C.S., relating to compulsory liability insurance, does not include "fines" such that any fines collected pursuant to enforcement of the act are to be accorded the same treatment as in other cases.

Fees and Costs--Civil

MW-325: April 16, 1981. In that Article 3930a-1 requires county clerks to collect fees for recording at the time the service is rendered, the County Clerk will not incur civil liability for not filing a deed of trust due to non-payment of filing fees though a subsequent lien be filed ahead of the deed of trust.

MW-396: December 4, 1981. A county clerk has implied authority to file federal tax lien notices without first receiving the fees therefore and thereafter to bill the proper govermental authorities.

MW-447: February 22, 1982. Article 3912e, V.T.C.S., does not exempt the State of Texas from having to pay filing fees in civil cases filed with district clerks.

MW-431: January 29, 1982. In an action of forcible entry and detainer, a justice of the peace may not collect the costs connected with a writ of restitution when the complaint is filed. He may, however, require the complainant to furnish security for costs.

Court Personnel, Use of Funds

MW-379: October 26, 1981. District adult probation funds may be used to provide certain services related to probation before the guilt and innocence phase of the trial, such as probation officers interviewing the defendant, advising him on the condition of probation, preparing paperwork and the written conditions of probation and providing a pre-sentence investigation report.

MW-399: November 30, 1981. County law library funds may be expended for equipping the County Law Library with computer hardware and software to aid judges and litigants in researching the law.

MW-415: December 22, 1981. Texas law does not prevent one person from serving in the dual capacity of deputy county clerk and deputy district clerk of Dallas County. Compensation for the joint employment should be set by the commissioners court. An employee who serves in this dual capacity is not necessarily entitled to the compensation that would be earned by two persons each serving full time as a deputy clerk.

Miscellaneous

MW-298: March 6, 1981. Section 53.06 of the Family Code requires a judge of a juvenile court to direct issuance of summons on the parents of a juvenile who is married.

MW-306: March 17, 1981. A proposal to condition a grant of shock probation upon a defendant's pleading guilty or nolo contendere and waiving his right of appeal would not contravene the sixth and fourteenth amendments to the United States Constitution. A trial judge may constitutionally deny a motion for shock probation without holding a hearing, so long as he is not a party to a plea bargain promising shock probation to the defendant in return for a guilty plea.

MW-312: March 23, 1981. A corporation must be represented by an attorney in county court or county court at law in cases involving an appeal to that court from small claims court irrespective of Article 2460a, V.T.C.S. Affirmed by MW-392, November 19, 1981.

OPINIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

At the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct, effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on this Code of Judicial Conduct. The opinions of this Committee that were handed down during 1981 are reproduced below.

OPINION NO. 54

Question: May a judge serve as a trustee on a trust which involves oil and gas properties only where such properties are all located outside the elected district of such judge with one minor exception?

Answer: No. Section 5D of the Code of Judicial Conduct states as follows: "A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or other fiduciary." The Code is quite explicit and since the only exception stated therein pertains to members of a Judge's family, which situation is not involved in this question, the Committee is of the opinion that to act as a trustee under the circumstances described would violate Section 5D of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 55

Question: May a judge periodically have fund-raising benefits to pay for (1) campaign costs, (2) living expenses or, (3) office expenses?

Answer: (1) Campaign Costs: Canon 7 of the Code of Judicial Conduct, which pertains to the political activities of a judge, does not specifically address itself to fund-raising matters to cover campaign expenses; therefore, the Committee is of the opinion that it is not unethical to have fund-raising benefits to raise funds to pay for campaign expenses, provided the nature and type of benefit does not, in any manner, compromise the judge in his integrity, his independence in judicial affairs, nor give the appearance of impropriety.

(2) Living Expenses: The Committee is of the opinion that fund-raising benefits to pay the living expenses of a judge would be unethical. Canon 5C (1) of the Code of Judicial Conduct would appear to prohibit such fund-raising events as it states:

> A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

In addition to the above, to permit such fund-raising events would seem to defeat the purpose and spirit of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

(3) Office Expenses and Overhead: The Committee is of the opinion that fund-raising benefits for the purpose of raising funds to cover the office expense or office overhead of a judge would be unethical for the same reasons he should not have such benefits to pay for his living expenses.

OPINION NO. 56

Question: Does the Code of Judicial Conduct prohibit a judge from having a fund-raising benefit in a year when he is not up for election?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that the Code of Judicial Conduct does not prohibit non-election year fund-raising activity provided the purpose of such fund-raising does not contravene other provisions of the code.

OPINION NO. 57

Question: May a judge serve as an advisory board member to a private non-profit corporation whose purpose is to operate a home to house and offer counseling to battered wives?

The Judicial Ethics Committee is informed that the jurisdiction of the court of the judge is limited to misdemeanor cases, that the judge's name will not be used on any corporate stationery, that the judge will act only as an advisor to the corporate board and will not participate in corporate decisions or day to day operations of the corporation, and that the judge has never had an assault case involving an assault by a husband on his wife in his court.

Answer: Canon 5 of the Code of Judicial Conduct, as amended February 19, 1980, states that a judge should regulate his extra-judicial activities to minimize the risk of conflict with his judicial duties. Canon 5B sets forth the limitations on extra-judicial civic and charitable activities of a judge, as follows:

> Canon 5B
> Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:
> (1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.
> (2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, political, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising event, but he may attend such events.
> (3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

The Committee is of the opinion that a judge may serve as an advisory member to a private non-profit corporation whose purpose is to operate a home to house and offer counseling to battered wives, provided his activities do not contravene the provisions of Canon 5B of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 58

Question: Does a judge subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct of the State of Texas violate the letter or spirit of the code when, as an authorized representative of the Texas Center for the Judiciary, Inc., he or she solicits contributions for the benefit of the Center from charitable and educational foundations and other donors who would not ordinarily come before the court?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that such conduct would not violate the letter or spirit of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

Participation in worthwhile organizations that depend upon fund-raising for support is a continuing dilemma for judges. While a judge may serve in a leadership capacity in such an organization, Canon 5B (2) of the Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits any type of participation, or lending the prestige of judicial office, in soliciting funds, no matter how worthy the purpose.

An exception to such activity is wisely provided in Canon 4, when the purpose of an organization is "devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice." The Texas Center for the Judiciary, Inc., clearly qualifies under such exception. Canon 4C provides that the Judge "may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting[1] agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice."

Canon 4C also provides that a judge "may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities."

It is the interpretation of the Committee that "public fund-raising activities" are those activities aimed at the general public or a large segment thereof. A more narrow interpretation would render the language "assist such an organization in raising funds" meaningless.

The Committee is of the opinion that Canon 4 permits a judge to present the purposes and financial requirements of the Texas Center for the Judiciary, Inc., to one or more of the prospective donors referred to in the question. Such a presentation must be in harmony with the spirit of the Code of Judicial Conduct, particularly Canons 1 and 2. The Committee recommends that the judge making such a presentation clearly state that such presentation is made as an authorized representative of the organization and not for the judge personally.

OPINION NO. 59

Question: May a judge act as a co-chairman of a fund raising event for another person seeking public office?

Answer: No. Canon 5B(a) states in pertinent part as follows: "A judge should not solicit funds for any...political... organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose..." The Committee is of the opinion that Canon 5B(2) prohibits a judge from acting as a co-chairman of a political fund raising event for another person.

OPINION NO. 60

Question: May a judge sit at the head table and make supportive comments in behalf of another person seeking public office, at a fund raising event for the other person?

[1] The code published on February 19, 1980 erroneously shows this as fund-raising instead of fund-granting.

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that sitting at the head table and saying supportive comments about a third person at a fund raising event for that person would be using the prestige of the judge and his office to benefit the third person. Such conduct would be in contravention of Canon 5B(2) and is prohibited.

OPINION NO. 61

Question: May a judge serve as a director of a bank where the board of the bank consists of 10 directors, where one of the directors is the representative of a holding company which owns all of the stock of the bank?

Answer: The Committee is of the opinion that for a judge to serve as a bank director under such circumstances would be contrary to the purposes of Canons 5C(1) and 5C(2), as well as Canon 2. A judge should regulate his extra-judicial activities to minimize the risk of conflict with his judicial duties and he should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all his activities. The fact that a holding company is the sole owner of the bank should not permit a judge to do indirectly that which he could not do directly.

COURT ACTIVITY: SUMMARIES AND ANALYSES

SOMERVELL COUNTY COURTHOUSE
GLEN ROSE, TEXAS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least three factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, juvenile board duties and responsibilities, and many other matters.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d of the Adult Probation Act and Article 42.13, Sec. 3d of the Misdemeanor Adult Probation Act provide for a system of deferred adjudication. A case in which a deferred adjudication is granted requires a similar expenditure of both time and resources by a court as that required in a case in which a final judgment is entered.

SUPREME COURT
Analysis of 1981 Activity

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the state. It is composed of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The number of applications for writs of error filed in the Supreme Court during 1981 increased slightly from 1980. A total of 876 applications were filed, compared to 842 in 1980 -- an increase of 4 percent, but 20 percent higher than the ten-year average of 731.

Regular Cause Filings Increase

In 1981, 123 new "regular causes" -- primarily cases in which the Court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion — reached the docket, compared to 116 in 1980 and the ten-year average of 107. New civil mandamus matters decreased from 130 in 1980 to 96 in 1981 (down 26 percent).

In 1981, the Supreme Court disposed of 70 percent of the regular causes docketed during 1981 or carried over from 1980, compared to 75 percent in 1980. Eighty-one percent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, compared to 83 percent during 1979.

The Court delivered 107 deciding opinions in 1981 compared to 123 in 1980 -- a decrease of 13 percent. A total of 149 opinions were written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 17 per justice, compared to 20 in 1980. The Supreme Court disposed of 860 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of appeals, compared to 849 in 1980, for an average of 96 per justice. Ten percent of the 860 applications were granted. Of the granted writs, the courts of appeals were reversed in 88 percent of the cases, for an effective reversal rate of the courts of appeals of 9 percent.

Forty-nine regular causes were pending at the end of 1981 -- 7 more than at the end of 1980, and 12 cases more than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket at the end of 1981 was 196 -- 9 percent more than the 180 at the end of 1980, and 30 percent more than the ten-year average of 151.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. "Regular Causes" are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. Cases other than "Regular Causes" include such actions as the court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of "Regular Causes."

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

Analysis of 1981 Activity

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. In addition, pursuant to Article 1811e, V.T.C.S., one special commissioner served the Court for a limited time during the year.

Until September 1,1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals received all criminal cases appealed from the district and county-level trial courts of the state. On September 1, a constitutional amendment and implementing legislation became effective which conferred on the 14 courts of appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those in which the death penalty was assessed. Appeal of these death penalty cases remains direct to the Court of Criminal Appeals. Decisions by the courts of appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for review by the State or defendant, or the Court may review a decision on its own motion.

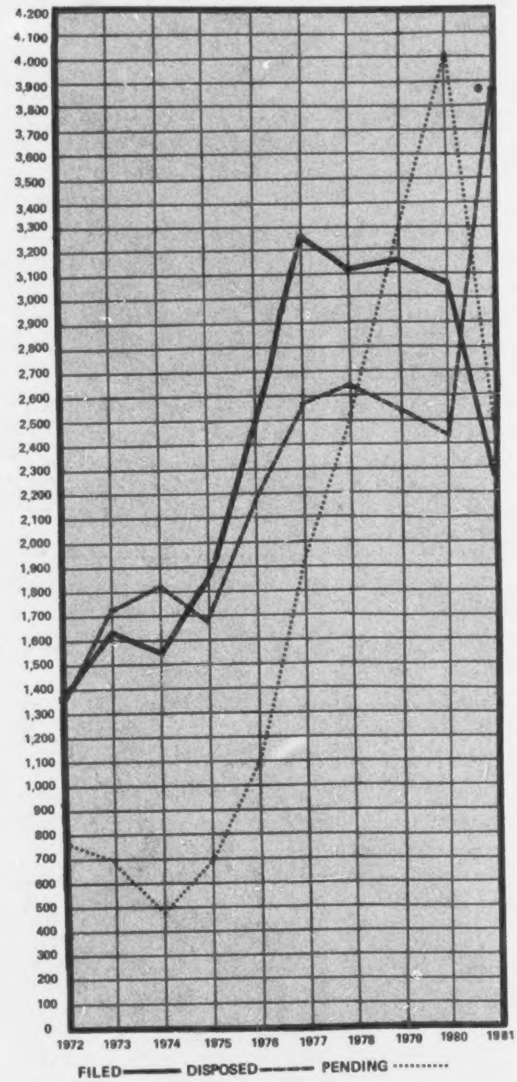
Cases filed, disposed and pending 1972-1981



● Includes 1,641 cases transferred to the Courts of Appeals

Annual Filings Decline

The 2,275 cases appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals prior to September 1, 1981, were the lowest number of annual filings in the Court since 1975 and 26 percent less than the 3,072 cases filed in 1980. After September 1, three death penalty cases were received by the Court, and 33 petitions for review were filed.

A total of 2,365 applications for writs of habeas corpus and mandamus were filed during 1981. There were 2,222 matters disposed of in 1981 compared to the 1980 total of 2,122.

In 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 35 percent of the cases docketed during the year or carried over from 1980, compared to 38 percent the previous year. Seventy-six percent were disposed of by per curiam opinions, compared to 83 percent in 1980.

There were 2,266 opinions (including dissents and concurrences) written in 1981, 18 percent fewer than the 1980 total of 2,765. Twenty-five percent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the decision of the trial court in 81 percent of the cases appealed, and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional 8.5 percent.

Pending Caseload Is Reduced

Pursuant to provisions of S.B. 265 of the 67th Legislature, on September 1, 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals transferred to the courts of appeals 1,641 cases then pending on its docket. Coupled with the 2,229 cases disposed during the year, this reduced the number of cases pending on December 31 to 2,470--38 percent fewer than at the end of 1980.

Based on the service of nine judges, the number of cases filed per judge decreased from 341 in 1980 to 253 in 1981. The nine judges wrote an average of 249 opinions in 1981, compared to 303 in 1980.

COURTS OF APPEALS

Analysis of 1981 Activity

Prior to September 1, 1981, the 14 courts of appeals exercised intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases only. On September 1, the courts also began hearing intermediate appeals in criminal cases pursuant to a constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 and implementing legislation enacted in 1981. Pursuant to this legislation, 24 justices were added to the 51 the courts had prior to September 1, for a total of 75 for the last four months of 1981. (Three additional justices will join the courts on September 1, 1982, and one on January 1, 1983.) Six of the courts have three justices each. The sizes of the others range up to the 12 justices on the Dallas Court. Each court has geographical jurisdiction in a supreme judicial district.

Civil cases filed in all of the courts of appeals during 1981 increased 8.0 percent over 1980 and were 45.5 percent higher than the ten-year average. More new civil cases were filed in 1981 than in 1980 in all but the Texarkana, Beaumont, Eastland, and Tyler courts. Of the courts with increased civil filings, the First Court, in Houston, experienced the largest percentage increase--20.9 percent (51 cases) and the Dallas Court had the largest increase in actual number of civil filings--58 cases. The Dallas Court continued to receive more new civil filings than any other court--497 compared to the average of 202 per court. The two courts in Houston, each of which have jurisdiction of the same geographical area, received a total of 637 new civil cases, 71 cases (12.5 percent) more than in 1980.

Criminal Cases Increase Docket Activity

Senate Bill 265 of the 67th Legislature, which implemented the constitutional amendment conferring jurisdiction of criminal cases on the courts of appeals, directed the Court of Criminal Appeals to transfer to the courts of appeals on which new judgeships were created up to 75 cases per new justice. Accordingly, on September 1, 1981, 1,637 cases were transferred to eight courts of appeals. In addition, from September 1 through December 31, 3,321 criminal appeals from the trial courts in the respective supreme judicial districts were filed in the courts of appeals. These criminal case filings for the last four months of 1981 were higher than the number filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals for any previous calendar year. Total new cases reaching the dockets of the courts of appeals during 1981 (filed from the trial courts or transferred from the Court of Criminal Appeals) were 7,788, 297 percent more than the 2,621 civil cases filed in 1980. S.B. 265 increased the number of justices on these courts by 47 percent.

In 1981, the courts of appeals disposed of 3,407 cases, 38.6 percent more than the 2,457 disposed of in 1980. A total of 3,016 opinions were written by the courts of appeals in 1981, 39.0 percent more than the 2,170 written in 1980. The courts of appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 18.9 percent of the cases disposed of, compared to 23.5 percent in 1980.

Pending Civil Cases Rise

At the end of 1981, 1,954 civil cases were pending on the dockets of the courts of appeals, 16.8 percent more than the 1,672 pending on December 31, 1980. Of those civil cases pending December 31, 1981, 66.4 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 26.4 percent from 6 to 12 months and 7.1 percent more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a court of appeals and its disposition ranged from 4.5 months in the Eastland Court to 9.3 months in the Tyler Court. The average for all courts was 6.9 months, slightly longer than the 6.4 months during 1980. A case is considered "submitted" to a court when the court hears oral argument, or when the case is referred to the justices for formal consideration when no oral argument is heard. The average lapse of time from the submission of a case to the court and its disposition ranged from one-half of a month in the Fort Worth Court to 5.2 months in the Texarkana Court. The average for all courts was 2.2 months, as compared with 1.6 months in 1980.

While the 14 courts of appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographical areas, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts by order of the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 1738, V.T.C.S. The Supreme Court transferred 371 civil cases and 434 criminal cases in 1981, compared with 241 civil cases transferred in 1980.

DISTRICT COURTS
Analysis of 1981 Activity

During 1981, 30 new district courts were created as a result of legislative action. On January 1, 1981, there was a total of 310 district-level courts. That number increased to 340 by the end of the year with the addition of newly-created courts. For statistical purposes, we have used 328 as an average number of district courts for the year.

The district courts experienced a 4.7 percent increase in new cases filed in 1981 -- 437,717, up from 417,874 in 1980. The trend of filings is shown by Figure 9.

New juvenile cases filed increased 27.1 percent over 1980 while criminal cases increased 6 percent and civil cases increased to 4.1 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 76.3 percent of the new cases filed in 1981. Almost half of the civil cases filed (42.1 percent) were for divorce. Of the civil cases filed, personal injury cases (including worker's compensation) comprised about 11 percent, as did tax cases and debt.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 2.5 percent of the total cases filed in district courts.

Criminal cases accounted for 21.2 percent of the total new cases filed in 1981. Of the criminal cases, 23.9 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 20.2 percent burglary, 5.9 percent robbery, 2.2 percent homicide (including capital murder), 3.1 percent rape (including sexual abuse of a child), 5.0 percent felony DWI and 9.8 percent drug offenses (including marijuana). Eight percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. Less than 15 percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder were by indictment.

Urban Filings Increase Little

The number of all categories of cases filed in 1981 in the nine Texas counties with populations over 250,000 increased 1.4 percent, considerably less than the 7.9 percent increase in all other counties. These nine large population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces, and Jefferson) had approximately 53 percent of the state's population and 55 percent of the total cases filed during 1981.

Total case filings in the nine counties increased in all but Bexar County (which decreased 6.6 percent) and Travis County (which decreased

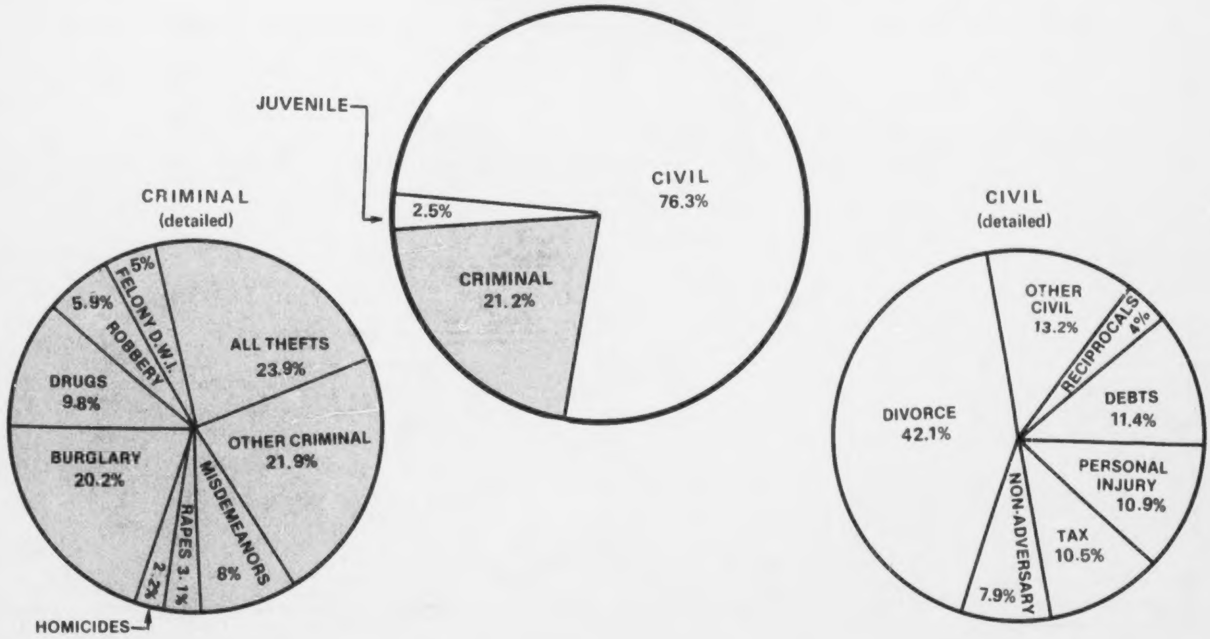
Categories of cases added 1981



10.2 percent). Increases in the other seven counties ranged from 18.5 percent in Hidalgo County to 1.1 percent in Dallas County.

Filings in criminal cases increased 4.3 percent in the nine urban counties and 6.9 percent in all other counties. Criminal filings increased 27.3 percent in Tarrant and 18.4 percent in Jefferson while dropping 21.5 percent in Hidalgo County. Civil case filings increased in six of the urban counties -- as high as a 28.3 percent increase in Hidalgo County. Civil filings in Travis County decreased by 21.2 percent. Overall, civil filings rose 1.4 percent in urban counties and 7.9 percent in the rest of the state.

Dispositions Remain Level

In 1981, the district courts of the state disposed of 44 percent of the total cases on their dockets (filed in 1981 or carried over from 1980) -- the same percentage as in 1980. The district courts in the nine counties with population over 250,000 disposed of 46.2 percent. In all other counties of the state, 42.5 percent were disposed. In all counties, 50.8 percent of the criminal cases and 44.1 percent of the civil cases on the dockets were disposed of during the year.

In the nine urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 51.0 percent, ranging from 62.6 percent in Hidalgo County to 31.9 percent in Jefferson County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 250,000 averaged 50.7 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 46.6 percent in the nine urban counties and 41.4 percent in the rest of the state. The range in the nine urban counties was from 65.4 percent in Jefferson County to 35.1 percent in El Paso County.

An average of 1,253 cases per judge were disposed of in 1981, an increase of 4.1 percent over the disposition rate of 1980.

Of all civil cases, 44.4 percent were disposed of by non-jury trials. (More than 71 percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Sixteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution and 13 percent were dismissed at the request of the plaintiff.

The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 55.9 percent of the disposed criminal cases. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 59.3 percent of the cases and acquitted in one percent. Thirty-eight percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 14.6 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 21.2 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case. In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not guilty

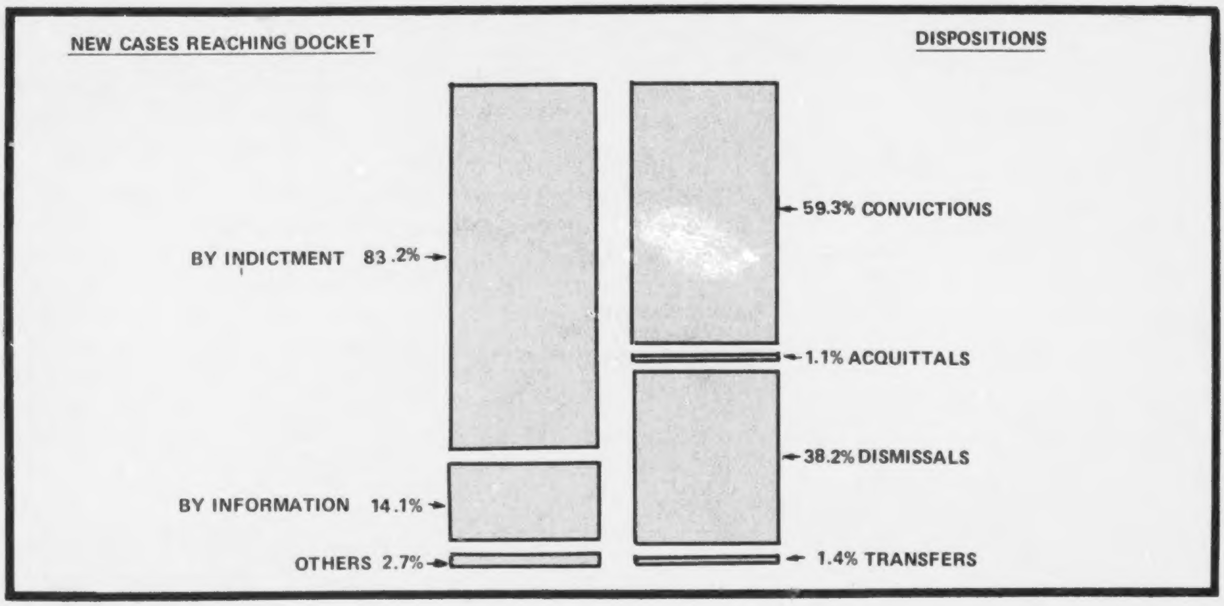
Criminal cases 1981



and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 79.7 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 20.3 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 71.1 percent of the cases and acquittals in 28.9 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 19.5 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) with 80.5 percent of the dispositions being by conviction. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of misdemeanors (65.9 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for Felony DWI -- 16.1 percent were dismissed.

Fewer Death Sentences Imposed

Twenty-three death sentences (down from 27 in 1980) and 341 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during 1981. A total of 14,703 persons were committed to the Texas Department of Corrections. Another 3,267 persons were incarcerated in local jails, 21,413 were placed on probation (excluding the 8,818 persons placed on deferred adjudication), and $11,673,000 in fines were assessed. The average sentence (including probation) was 4.8 years. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas in 1981, 33.6 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the time of indictment or information, 14.4 percent took two to three months, 11.2 percent took three to four months, and 38.4 percent took over four months. The remaining 2.4 percent of the dispositions were after completing deferred adjudication.

Of the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 65.4 percent of the cases disposed. The defendant was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in 1.6 percent.

District courts handled 8.6 percent more divorce actions in 1981 than in 1980. In 1981, 144,060 divorce cases were disposed of -- 35.1 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Some 21 percent were dismissed.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories of cases. Only 24.5 percent of the tax cases filed in 1981 or carried over from 1980 were disposed of by the district courts in 1981. Of those dispositions, 64.8 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff or for want of prosecution. Almost 36 percent of the personal injury type cases ended in agreed judgments and 20.3 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

Of the 317,747 civil dispositions during 1981, the courts disposed of 29.6 percent in under three months, 21.0 percent in three to six months, 16.9 percent in six to 12 months, 10.6 percent in 12 to 18 months and 21.9 percent took over 18 months.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts at the end of 1981 -- 513,980 -- was 8.6 percent higher than the 473,191 pending at the end of 1980. Criminal cases pending increased by 18.7 percent while civil cases pending at the end of 1981 were up 6.0 percent.

Another way to view the volume of cases pending on December 31, 1981, is to assume that no new cases are filed in 1982 and that all the present district judges dispose of cases at the same rate as during 1981. At that rate, it would take an average of 456.5 days per court to dispose of the cases pending at the end of 1981.

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories, with abbreviation used in parentheses, are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER (CAP. MURD). Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER (MURD OR VOL. MANS). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER (ASLT OR ATT. MURD). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault); any offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault), 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer), or 22.04 (Injury to a Child); or any offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.03) or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. RAPE. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape) or 21.03 (Aggravated Rape).

5. SEXUAL ABUSE OR RAPE OF A CHILD. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), 21.10 (Sexual Abuse of a Child) or 21.11 (Indecency with a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, any offense under Sections 21.04 (Sexual Abuse) or 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

6. ROBBERY (ROB). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).

7. BURGLARY (BURG). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).

8. THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle.

9. AUTO THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is a motor vehicle, or any offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).

10. ARSON. Any offense under Penal Code Section 28.02 (Arson).

11. MARIJUANA SALE OR MANUFACTURE (MARJ SALE OR MANF). Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell marijuana.

12. OTHER DRUG SALE OR MANUFACTURE. Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell a drug or controlled substance other than marijuana.

13. MARIJUANA POSSESSION (MARJ POSS). Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the possession of marijuana (over 4 ounces).

14. OTHER DRUG POSSESSION (OTHER DRUG POSS). Any felony offense for possession under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) other than possession of marijuana.

15. FORGERY (FORG). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 32.21 (Forgery).

16. FELONY D.W.I. An offense under Article 6701*l*-2, V.T.C.S.

17. OTHER FELONY. Any felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

18. ALL MISDEMEANORS (ALL MISD). Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (AUTO PERS. INJURY). All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (OTHER PERS. INJURY). Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION (WORKERS COMP). Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES (ACCT CONT NOTE). Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS (RECIP). Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state.

8. CONDEMNATION (CONDM). Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

9. NON-ADVERSARY (NON ADVER.). This is a narrowly defined category, to include only:

-Adoptions
-Changes of Name
-Occupational Drivers License
-Termination of Parental Rights
-Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
-Removal of Disability of Minority
-Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
-Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil or juvenile cases.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

At least three factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, juvenile board duties and responsibilities, and many other matters.

Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d., Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d., Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

> (a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.
> (b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.
> (c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

In addition to the 82,731 criminal cases finally disposed of by the district courts of Texas in 1981, in 8,818 cases the accused was placed on deferred adjudication. During the same period of time, 1,534 deferred cases were dismissed after the probationary period was completed. For many purposes, the cases in which deferred adjudication was granted may be considered disposed, even though those cases remain on the docket and thus inflate the number of cases pending at the end of the year.

DISTRICT COURT ACTIVITY

1981 Special Survey Results

(Deferred Adjudications)

A special survey of district courts was conducted in April, 1982, to obtain information on the 1981 court activity in two areas not included on the regular monthly reporting forms, Deferred Adjudication and Competency Hearings in criminal cases.

Article 42.12, Sec. 3d of the Adult Probation Act and Article 42.13, Sec. 3d of the Misdemeanor Adult Probation Act provide for a procedure by which a court, after a finding of guilty, may defer further proceedings in the case and place the defendant on a probationary status under such terms and conditions, and for such period of time, as the court may prescribe, not exceeding the maximum period of imprisonment allowed for the offense.

While the granting of such a "deferred adjudication" requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) until either 1) the defendant successfully completes the probationary period and the case is dismissed as a result, or 2) the defendant is found to have violated a condition of the probation, and as a result, a vinding of guilty on the original charge is entered and punishment is assessed as if adjudication had not been deferred.

The results of this special survey are presented in the following tables and indicate 1) the number of cases in which the defendant had been previously placed on deferred adjudication and in which, during 1981, the defendant was found to have violated the conditions of the probationary status and therefore a finding of guilty was entered in the case, and 2) the number of cases on deferred adjudication pending as of December 31, 1931. [The number of persons placed on deferred adjudication in 1981 and the number of cases dismissed after probation was completed are included in the regular court activity data of this report.]

The second two items in the survey, also contained in the following tables, indicate 1) the total number of competency hearings in criminal cases held in 1981, and 2) the number of hearings in which the person was found incompetent.

The responses received from the district clerks are included in the following tables. A dash (--) in a particular column indicates that no information was available in the category represented by that column, while a zero indicates that the county reported no activity in that category. The absence of a county from these tables denotes either that no response was received from that county or that it reported the information was not available.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Analysis of 1981 Activity

The county clerk in each of the 254 counties of Texas is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For 1981, the clerks in all 254 counties reported all twelve months' activity, for a 100 percent reporting rate.

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 69.7 percent (351,409) of the 504,042 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 16.8 percent (84,668) and probate 13.1 percent (66,150). New juvenile cases filed were less than one-half percent of the total.

DWI Cases Top Criminal Dockets

Concerning the criminal cases only, 25.5 percent of those filed in or appealed to the county-level courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs (DWI/DUID), 22.1 percent were for theft, 8.6 percent for violations of drug laws, 15.6 percent for traffic offenses, 2.2 percent for simple assault, and 26 percent were for other criminal offenses.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 18.3 percent of the cases added to the county-level court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county-level courts. Traffic violations accounted for 55.4 percent of all appeals.

Debt Suits Dominate Civil Dockets

Of the new civil cases docketed, 37.8 percent were classified as a suit on debt, 12.8 percent concerned personal injury/damage suits, 2.8 percent were divorce suits, 2.2 percent were tax suits, and 44.4 percent were other civil cases.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the state disposed of 48 percent of the 827,853 total criminal, civil, and juvenile cases on their dockets (filed during 1981 or carried over from 1980). No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. The disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (59.8 percent). Forty-nine percent of the criminal cases on the docket were disposed of as were 44.6 percent of the civil cases. Within the criminal category, 56.3 percent of the drug charges, 38.1 percent of the DWI/DUID charges, 40.6 percent of theft charges, 55.4 percent of assault charges, 66.8 percent of traffic cases, and 57.5 of other criminal cases were disposed.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county-level courts disposed of 397,501 cases, while 437,892 cases were added to their dockets.

Of the criminal cases disposed of in county-level courts, 36.4 percent were disposed of following a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and 46.3 percent were dismissed. Trials were held in less than one percent of the criminal cases, 1,318 before the judge alone and 1,966 before a jury.

The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the assault cases -- 60.8 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Dismissals accounted for 46.7 percent of the DWI/DUID, 58.4 percent of the theft, 39.1 percent of drug, and 50 percent of the traffic case dispositions, respectively.

The methods of disposition of civil cases parallel those for criminal cases except that a higher percentage (13.2) of cases involved a trial. Of the civil cases tried, 1,996 were before a jury and 9,615 were before the judge alone. Default or agreed judgments accounted for 43.2 percent of civil dispositions, and 40.8 percent of civil cases were dismissed.

Total Pending Caseloads Rise

Total cases pending on the dockets of the county-level courts increased 10.4 percent from the first to the end of the year -- 389,961 on January 1 and 430,352 on December 31. (This does not include probate cases.)

Civil cases remaining on the dockets on December 31 represented a 2.7 percent decrease in pending civil cases. Pending criminal cases increased by 15.7 percent during the year.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d., Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d., Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

> (a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.
> (b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.
> (c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

In addition to the 308,040 criminal cases finally disposed of by county-level courts in Texas in 1981, in 56,596 cases the accused was placed on deferred adjudication. During this same period of time, 22,858 deferred cases were dismissed after the probationary period was completed. For many purposes, the cases in which deferred adjudication was granted may be considered disposed, even though those cases remain on the docket and thus inflate the number of cases pending at the end of the year.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D. An offense under Article 6701ℓ-1, V.T.C.S. (Driving While Intoxicated) or Article 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S. (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS. An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders than outstanding. (Section 31.06, P.C. is also often cited in the complaint.) If the complaint is originally brought in the county court (Class A or B Misdemeanor), it's reported on Line 2. If the case is an appeal from a Justice of the Peace or Municipal Court (Class C Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 3. Also included in Line 3 is an appeal of a case brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Check.

3. DRUG OFFENSES. An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug Act (Article 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT. An offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC. Violations of the provisions of Article 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Article 6701ℓ-1) and D.U.I.D. (Article 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL. An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding catgories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not to be included in this category.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS ON DEBT. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE. (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE DOCKET

The number of probate cases, of all types, including mental health proceedings.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURT ACTIVITY
1981 Special Survey Results
(Deferred Adjudications and Competency Hearings)

A special survey of county courts was conducted in April, 1982, to obtain information on the 1981 court activity in two areas not included on the regular monthly reporting forms, Deferred Adjudication and Competency Hearings in criminal cases.

Article 42.12, Sec. 3d of the Adult Probation Act and Article 42.13, Sec. 3d of the Misdemeanor Adult Probation Act provide for a procedure by which a court, after a finding of guilty, may defer further proceedings in the case and place the defendant on a probationary status under such terms and conditions, and for such period of time, as the court may prescribe, not exceeding the maximum period of imprisonment allowed for the offense.

While the granting of such a "deferred adjudication" requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) until either 1) the defendant successfully completes the probationary period and the case is dismissed as a result, or 2) the defendant is found to have violated a condition of the probation, and as a result, a finding of guilty on the original charge is entered and punishment is assessed as if adjudication had not been deferred.

The results of this special survey are presented in the following tables and indicate 1) the number of cases in which the defendant had been previously placed on deferred adjudication and in which, during 1981, the defendant was found to have violated the conditions of the probationary status and therefore a finding of guilty was entered in the case, and 2) the number of cases on deferred adjudication pending as of December 31, 1981. [The number of persons placed on deferred adjudication in 1981 and the number of cases dismissed after probation was completed are included in the regular court activity data of this report.]

The second two items in the survey, also contained in the following tables, indicate 1) the total number of competency hearings in criminal cases held in 1981, and 2) the number of hearings in which the person was found incompetent.

The responses received from the county clerks are included in the following tables. A dash (--) in a particular column indicates that no information was available in the category represented by that column, while a zero indicates that the county reported no activity in that category. The absence of a county from these tables denotes either that no response was received from that county or that it reported the information was not available.

JUVENILE COURT ACTIVITY

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district, criminal district, county court at law or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

The total statewide activity indicates that about 86 percent of the juvenile cases in the state were handled by district courts and the 14 percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Statewide, 11,761 new juvenile cases were filed during 1981 -- 20 percent more than in 1980. Of these, 10,317 were for allegations of delinquent conduct (up 21 percent from 1980) and 1,444 were for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision (up 14 percent). The courts disposed of 12,207 cases — seven percent more than in 1980. Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 66 percent of the dispositions and findings of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in one percent. Thirty-three percent were dismissed or otherwise disposed of. Of those children found delinquent or in need of supervision, 82 percent were placed on formal probation. Children were found to be delinquent and ordered confined to a Texas Youth Council facility in 1,296 cases. During 1981, 312 children were certified to be tried as adults.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Analysis of 1981 Activity

The Judicial Council determined from various sources that there were 962 justices of the peace in Texas during 1981. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. All twelve months' activity for 1981 was reported by 660 justices of the peace, 138 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity, and 164 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 8,930 reports out of a possible 11,544 for 1981 (77 percent).

Two-Thirds of Filings Are Traffic Cases

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 87 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 77 percent were traffic cases (2/3 of all cases filed). During 1981, 1,184,418 traffic cases were filed, six percent less than in 1980. Non-traffic criminal cases filed were one percent more than in 1980 and comprised 23 percent of the total cases filed. Civil cases provided 13 percent of the new cases filed, about the same as during 1980. Twenty percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, 40 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits, and 40 percent were other civil actions.

In addition to cases filed, the reporting courts held 10,240 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In the justice of the peace's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 36,405 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 70,992 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). There were 8,594 examining trials held (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) and 11,987 inquests were conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 51,087. Also, 4,278 search warrants were issued and 100,532 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Emergency mental commitment hearings were conducted on 3,505 occasions and 11,372 hearings relating to juvenile matters were conducted.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving), and at trial. Eighty percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 18 percent at trial, and 2 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course.

Looking at traffic cases only, 88 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 90 percent of those by payment of fine. Of the 12 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining cases were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 97 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 68 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 81 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Nineteen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 94 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 32 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (62 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than did criminal cases (13 percent). Thirty-seven percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported disposing of 1,635,428 cases, which is 81 percent of the 2,013,083 filed. Total dispositions were one percent higher than in 1980.

Appeals were filed in 17,164 cases tried in the justice of the peace courts, or about one percent of the cases disposed.

Total Revenues Rise 14 Percent

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1981 was $49,509,550, 14 percent more than in 1980. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a $6.00 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State.

Finally, during 1981 justices of the peace reported holding 202,745 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 102,415 causes (51 percent) not being filed as formal cases.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $5.00, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.).

3. Small Claims Suits. This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with Article 2460a, V.T.C.S.

4. Forcible Entry and Detainer. This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of Articles 3973-3994, V.T.C.S. and Rules 738-755, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. Other Civil Suits. This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt) and for forclosure of liens upon or for possession of personal property.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Analysis of 1981 Activity

All 762 municipal courts operating in Texas cities during 1981 were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Texas Judicial Council on activity in the court. All twelve months' activity for 1981 was reported by 559 of the courts, 70 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 133 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 7,177 reports out of a possible 9,144 for the year (78 percent).

Traffic Cases Dominate Dockets

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 91 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. A total of 5,406,930 traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1981. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 9 percent of the cases filed.

Of new traffic cases filed, 52 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 48 percent for parking related offenses. Seventy-six percent of non-traffic cases filed were state law violations with 24 percent related entirely to local ordinances.

In the municipal judge's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 16,080 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 9,652 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). A total of 191 examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 109 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 15,903. There were 4,626 search warrants issued and 77,882 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. In addition, 421 emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 5,441 hearings relating to juvenile matters were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Eighty-seven percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 11 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 2 percent were defensive driving dismissals.

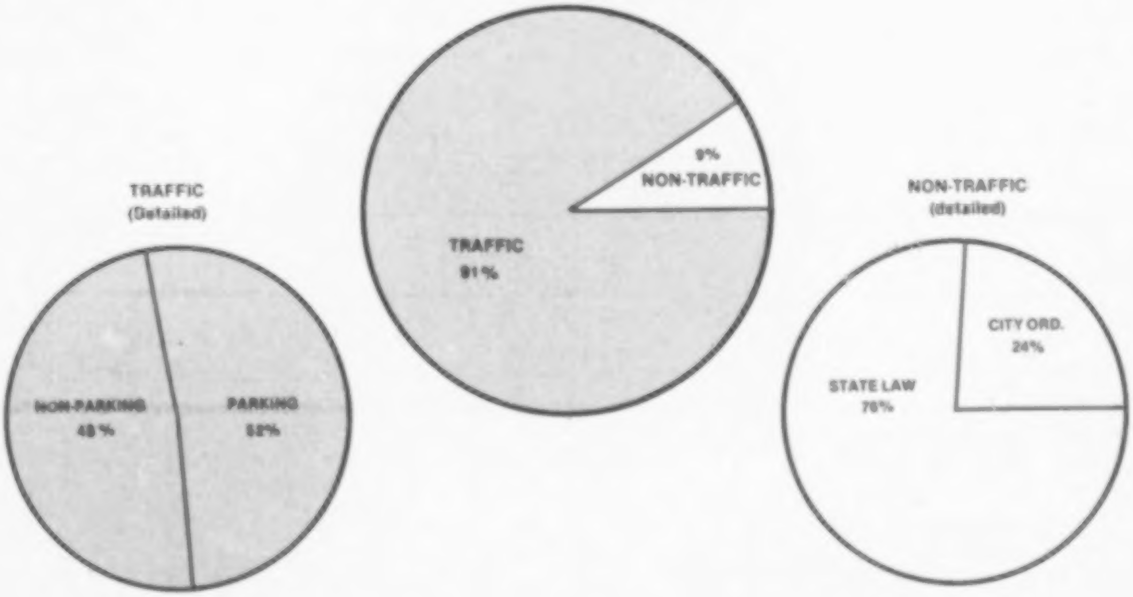
Categories of cases filed 1981



Looking at traffic cases only, 91 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 86 percent of the non-parking and 99 percent of the parking. Of the 9 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 87 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 74 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 71 percent were disposed of prior to trial (68 percent of the state law violations and 80 percent of those relating to city ordinances), and 29 percent at trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 92 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 66 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 4,450,384 cases, which is 75 percent of the 5,934,116 filed. Of the convictions, 47,918 cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than one percent of the total cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $93 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1981 was $93,159,630. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a $6.00 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State. In 1981, $10,119,471 was reported as being submitted by the cities to the state.

MUNICIPAL COURTS
Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle.

Non-Parking includes all those violations which do not involve offenses for improper parking (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.).

Parking includes those offenses, by state law or city ordinance, which involve the improper standing of a vehicle (for example, Parking on Highway Right of Way, Within an Intersection, Overparking, etc.).

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations.

State Law violations are those usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $5, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.).

City Ordinance violations are those non-traffic offenses found in the ordinances of the city (for example, Dog Running at Large, Plumbing Code violation, etc.).

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

DISTRICT COURTS: DETAILED STATISTICS*

TARRANT COUNTY COURTHOUSE
FORT WORTH, TEXAS

---

*For analysis and summaries of statewide district court activity, see pages 113-135

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

At least three factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, juvenile board duties and responsibilities, and many other matters.

Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d., Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d., Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

> (a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.
> (b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.
> (c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

In addition to the 82,731 criminal cases finally disposed of by the district courts of Texas in 1981, in 8,818 cases the accused was placed on deferred adjudication. During the same period of time, 1,534 deferred cases were dismissed after the probationary period was completed. For many purposes, the cases in which deferred adjudication was granted may be considered disposed, even though those cases remain on the docket and thus inflate the number of cases pending at the end of the year.

DISTRICT COURTS

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories, with abbreviation used in parentheses, are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER (CAP. MURD). Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER (MURD OR VOL. MANS). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER (ASLT OR ATT. MURD). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault); any offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault), 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer), or 22.04 (Injury to a Child); or any offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.03) or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. RAPE. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape) or 21.03 (Aggravated Rape).

5. SEXUAL ABUSE OR RAPE OF A CHILD. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), 21.10 (Sexual Abuse of a Child) or 21.11 (Indecency with a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, any offense under Sections 21.04 (Sexual Abuse) or 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

6. ROBBERY (ROB). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).

7. BURGLARY (BURG). Any offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).

8. THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle.

9. AUTO THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is a motor vehicle, or any offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).

10. ARSON. Any offense under Penal Code Section 28.02 (Arson).

11. MARIJUANA SALE OR MANUFACTURE (MARJ SALE OR MANF). Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell marijuana.

12. OTHER DRUG SALE OR MANUFACTURE. Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell a drug or controlled substance other than marijuana.

13. MARIJUANA POSSESSION (MARJ POSS). Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the possession of marijuana (over 4 ounces).

14. OTHER DRUG POSSESSION (OTHER DRUG POSS). Any felony offense for possession under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) other than possession of marijuana.

15. FORGERY (FORG). Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 32.21 (Forgery).

16. FELONY D.W.I. An offense under Article 6701l-2, V.T.C.S.

17. OTHER FELONY. Any felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

18. ALL MISDEMEANORS (ALL MISD). Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (AUTO PERS. INJURY). All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES (OTHER PERS. INJURY). Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION (WORKERS COMP). Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES (ACCT CONT NOTE). Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS (RECIP). Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state.

8. CONDEMNATION (CONDM). Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

9. NON-ADVERSARY (NON ADVER.). This is a narrowly defined category, to include only:

-Adoptions
-Changes of Name
-Occupational Drivers License
-Termination of Parental Rights
-Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
-Removal of Disability of Minority
-Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
-Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS: DETAILED STATISTICS*

RED RIVER COUNTY COURTHOUSE
CLARKSVILLE, TEXAS

---

*For analysis and summaries of statewide county-level court activity, see pages 136-150

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d., Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d., Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

> (a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.
> (b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.
> (c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

In addition to the 308,040 criminal cases finally disposed of by county-level courts in Texas in 1981, in 56,596 cases the accused was placed on deferred adjudication. During this same period of time, 22,858 deferred cases were dismissed after the probationary period was completed. For many purposes, the cases in which deferred adjudication was granted may be considered disposed, even though those cases remain on the docket and thus inflate the number of cases pending at the end of the year.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D. An offense under Article 6701ℓ-1, V.T.C.S. (Driving While Intoxicated) or Article 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S. (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS. An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders than outstanding. (Section 31.06, P.C. is also often cited in the complaint.) If the complaint is originally brought in the county court (Class A or B Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 2. If the case is an appeal from a Justice of the Peace or Municipal Court (Class C Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 3. Also included in Line 3 is an appeal of a case brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Check.

3. DRUG OFFENSES. An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug Act (Article 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT. An offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC. Violations of the provisions of Article 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Article 6701ℓ-1) and D.U.I.D. (Article 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL. An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding catgories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not to be included in this category.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS ON DEBT. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE. (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE DOCKET

The number of probate cases, of all types, including mental health proceedings.
